You know I sat here and read these comments about people and how you felt that you know all the ins and outs of the F ather. Let's remember where you came from and mercy and forgiveness (according to Jesus) is given to you in the mea sure you give out.

Please, if you feel your brother or sister has done wrong, Pray for them and remember though I speak with tongues of A ngels and I have not love I'm just a crashing cymbal. The greatest of these is Love. God is Love. Again... the MEASU RE you give in mercy is how the Father measures out how much he gives you.
