I was There - posted by Utmost4Him (), on: 2008/2/12 21:54

O my!
what can I say?
It was a such a wonderful week! God moved in our hearts in such deep and wonderful ways. He went deep in my heart. I had gotten just a little off track, and by the end of the week HE in His love and mercy had so arrested my attention that now, my only desire and passion is to "apprehend that for which I have been apprehended" amen?
seriously, Why are we here? time is short... We have the answer that everyone is looking for...God help us. Help us not waste our lives pilfering our minutes out in mundane and mortal mediocrity. God continue Your deep work in our lives. C ontinue waking up your sleeping children. continue revealing the sin in our lives and laying conviction upon our hearts un til we do something about it! O God have mercy on us...

So, I am so grateful that God made a way for me to be there, and my prayer is that He truly will finish the blessed work which He has begun.
Amen.
