

Availability for Preaching

~Other Speakers A-F: Advice to Young Preachers:

A man who listened once to D.L Moody was very critical of his grammar and reprimanded him for it. Moody's response was: " I wish my grammar were better. I wish I had a better education, but I am using all the grammar I have for the glory of God. Are you doing as much with yours?" God is more interested in our availability than he is our ability.
