

Objective of Preaching

~Other Speakers A-F: Advice to Young Preachers:

In the pulpit of the Highland Park Baptist Church in Chattanooga, Tennessee are the words "Sir, we would see Jesus." Dr. Lee Roberson placed those there years ago to make clear who his ministry was all about—that being the Lord Jesus Christ. It would be wise for us to keep the same objective in mind. That is what the congregation needs to see in our sermons. Dr. Tom Walker

Two men went to hear Dr. Joseph Parker in London. As they came away from the church, they said, "My, what eloquence! He knows how to choose the right words and say them! His oratory is simply irresistible!" The same two men went to the other side of town to hear Spurgeon on the following Sunday. They left the service silently and reverently. One said, "My what a Christ."
