

Preach It Personally

~Other Speakers S-Z: Arthur Vess:

Preach it personally in your daily life and conversation to individuals in their homes, at work, on the streets and every place where people need it. Holiness is not worth much if it dies at church. If you know how to preach to individuals, you can preach to the masses as individuals, and make everyone who needs it feel that the message is for them. The masses and congregations are all made up of individuals. Make them say, "That message was for me, just what I needed." Do it so that they will forget the preacher and the time, and all else, but God and the truth, as they need both. Like Isaiah who "saw the Lord, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple," which charged the atmosphere. "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts. The whole earth is full of his glory."