Does anybody know of a good sermon that would be good to hand out to non-christians while street witnessing?

"...God a n o i n t e d Jesus of Nazareth with the H o l y G h o s t and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for G o d w a s w i t h h i m." Acts 10:38

Compilations are usually good. That may keep their attention if they do not like just listeneing to someone talk, since it h as music.

I give out 'keep listening' and 'freedom' both off the fireonthealtar.com site. I also mix and match my own from wherever I can find them. Here on SI there are some good short gospel messages, half the fun is finding them ;-)
Dave Legge has some great Gospel sermons which really convict - listen to 'away with Him' and 'A cry from Hell' but the y are about 45mins. And you can always make some specifically for a season like Halloween, Christmas ans Easter, the se are readily received. There is also bible quotes (like on Freedom) which is just bits of the bible read out, you can mak e these yourself (by downloading the audio bible - not reading into a mic) - the possibilities are endless. have a good sea rch and let us know how you get on.

There is a compilation here on sermonindex called "The Simple Gospel" that preaches the gospel very good and is good to hand out!

Also you can download witnessing CD's from the following web page and then burn as many copies as you want. There are different CD's geared for different people - some are for the lost and others are for people in the church.

I've always have given out Ray Comforts "Hell's Best Kept Secret" & "True and False Conversions". These messages n ot only convict to share the Gospel, but also test the listener to see if they are truly a disciple of Christ.
