teaching on the Word... - posted by Combat_Chuck (), on: 2006/5/5 18:17

I'm creating an MP3 CD which will include the KJV New Testament Audio Bible, Pilgrims progress, E-sword, and a few select teachings on the subject of the Word of God in general, and understanding the Word, intrepretation, etc...

So, if you know of any great messages from godly men, I would love to include them. I currently have in mind Chuck Smiths "Basis for the Bible" and "Foundation of the Word 1&2", also some stuff from Walter Martin.

Do you know of any other good teachings on the Word about the subjects mentioned?

Anything from Tozer or Ravenhill, or somebody else?

Thanks and blessings to you!
Adam

Definetly one file by the preacher Keith Daniel called "the word of God" sounds like a great compliation, if you could send one CD to the mailing address for this ministry once you are down that would be great.

Thanks, I could probably do that. I'll let you know how it pans out in the end.

Send me a PM with the address to send it to please :-)

Anybody else have any recommendations?

Here you go;

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/singlefile.php?lid5014>) The Word Psalm 119

By A.W. Tozer

This might fit in, recall that he pretty well get's to the heart of the issue.
