Jesus I feel so dry and dreary , I am weak let me always know my weakness so I can be strong.

Jesus get rid of all my dryness.

I feel as dry as the mars surface or the moon.

Fill me up and give me a hunger for souls and there salvation.

Let me experience hell so I can bring people to heaven.

Let me see what a sinner I am so I need a savior

Give me more faith.

Jesus let me be filled up but let me never be full.

If the whole world as is made up of quarks and if every quark was empty I want the lord to be filled up with your presence so every quark is full and that the presence in those is concentrated.

Stir up a hunger in me for souls and let me hate my sin.

Jesus I need your help

Jesus I need your help

Jesus I need your help

Jesus I need your help

Jesus I need your help

Jesus I need your help

Jesus I need your help

let me always be 100% reliant on you give me iron legs so I can pray and let me forgive others and repent of my personal sin and bless other and help me to pray and let me know that without me you can do nothing
