

Welcome & Intro :: Wanna be a blessing....

Wanna be a blessing.... - posted by victorytruth, on: 2006/6/12 13:58

Hi, I've never been on any chat site - yet feel my new laptop will help me write more of what the Lord has shown me in my personal walk with both believers, borderline believers, and unbelievers. Would love to toss some ideas out to you all and see your response before I get in real trouble with printed text.

God Bless you for this site!

May the Holy Spirit guide you in this, and every word you write.

Hi Welcome to SermonIndex,

I do encourage you to share in the discussions and add to the interaction and not just post articles or writings that you have. Also I encourage you to listen to some of the audio sermons by speakers like: A.W. Tozer, Leonard Ravenhill and Zac Poonen. If you haven't yet check out this audio sermon by Paris Reidhead: Ten Shekels and a Shirt.
