Ha ha ha couldn't resist hey! I'm glad I caught your attention! This my first message, I'm trying to get to grips with all the features in this website - looks really good. I'm just about to start a new job that involves a lot of travelling so I want to have some decent sermons to listen to while I drive/fly. Send me a message to say hi. Later.

Caveman,

Good to have you on board! What's George Mueller's hometown (Bristol, i think) like these days?

Welcome from Texas

Bristol is a cool place to be - well it is for me anyway because it is where God wants me to be! No doubt about that I tell you I am so looking forward to it! Can't wait to see what the year ahead holds. Thanks for the welcome, much appreciated! And yes you are right - George Muller was from Bristol, he founded Muller Homes as a refuge for children. See you.
