Richard's Introduction, on: 2006/6/29 10:37

Hi, my name is Richard and I'm situated just outside London.

Dear Heavenly Father,

I thank you for this site. I thank you for its love for you. I pray and believe that you will bless, challenge and encourage me through this website. I also pray that I may be an encouragement and help to others. Help us all in our walks with you Lord God, and help us all to know and love you more every single day. May you be the centre of our lives, and may we crucify ourselves, and also crucify the world with us. May we live only for you and make it our only aim to glorify Your Beautiful Name. Thank you Lord.

In Jesus' Name

May God bless and encourage you all.

Welcome Richard!

May the Lord answer your petitions as you fellowship and get strengthened in your faith on this site. God bless! Peace, not as the world gives!

Richard,

Welcome to SermonIndex, I am glad you found this resource, may God open you more and more to His grace and the revelation of His Son. I encourage you to start with this audio file if you haven't heard it yet: Ten Shekels and a Shirt by Paris Reidhead. Also some other great speakers are: Zac Poonen, A.W. Tozer and Leonard Ravenhill.

If you have any questions let me know.

Richard, this may seem like a stupid question, but which London are you talking about - England or Canada. (I am assuming England)

Anyway, welcome! It will be good to dialogue with you.

Diane

Not a stupid question at all. But it is the London in England.
