Hi, everybody. What a great site this is! So many revival resources. I have a free writing ministry called Relevant Bible Teaching. I also wrote a book on revival called Catch Fire: A Call to Spiritual Awakening. I live in Wisconsin, and I have to trust in God greatly each day as I battle incurable double vision. But God is faithful, giving me strength to carry on each day. We serve a great God, Amen? Drop by my site if you would and check out the resources there. I will gladly respond to your emails also. God bless!

Brent,

Glad to have you on this website and have you contributing to the conversations. I love your heart for revival may God increase your message to the body of Christ in these last days, Oh how we need to pray and seek after revival.

I highly recommend you listen and download these sermons:
