Prophetic Credentials 3 - posted by IRONMAN (), on: 2006/9/30 22:33

brethren

at this time i feel led of our Lord to continue on where prophetic credentials 2 left off. that discussion is here: https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id=11514&forum=35&77

At the close of that discussion i feel our Lord drew a line in the sand for me and bro Rahman also. Through bro Ron Bailey (Philologos) God challenged me to put my money where my mouth was. i believe God called me to be His apostle and prophet (which bro Ron rejects) and that He has told me some things concerning the future of America. At any rate in short the main thing has to do with the collapse of the American economy which i heard our Lord say will be next year. If on January 1 2008 this hasn't happened, i'll apologize and sit down and be quiet. if it does, then God will surely have me pretty busy. i personally believe the latter. Most people have said to me "what if it's not God?" that would be the easy way out. one could then say "ok then it's not" and then remain where they are. i ask the harder question, "what if it is?" if it is Him and we reject the word then we incur whatever judgement comes with that, if it is, then we get whatever benefits come with that.

Let our Lord be the judge and prove to us all if He called me or not. the line has been drawn in the sand and this is now public record for all to see.

Today the Lord led me through Jeremiah 32 which talked about the time Jeremiah bought the field from his cousin. It spoke of the restoration of all that was around them which was falling apart at the hand of the Babylonian invaders under Nebuchadnezzar. Next the Lord led me through Obadiah which was a prophecy against Edom, home of Israel's brethren. The Edomites rejoiced at the destruction of Israel and helped the invaders instead of helping their brethren but their judgment was to come and this was what Obadiah was led to speak about. As i read the passage, my mind took it in English but my spirit spoke it in the language it was written in. i only became aware of it when i read over names of people and places. This was a most amazing experience in the Spirit. Afterward my spirit began to speak as the Holy Spirit gave him utterance and he spoke of how we as men have placed so many idols before God and set up many, many alters to false gods which God is coming to destroy. He also spoke of the crashing of the economy of America in 2007 ushering in a period of great unrest in which we will see where the hearts of men are.

Today the Lord showed me a vision. He has shown me this vision before and it is as follows. The Lord lifts me up above the earth specifically above the United States and shows me the cities of New York and Washington D.C. In my hands there are 2 balls of fire which i hurl down at both cities. There are 2 terrible explosions which looked very much like nuclear ones. i'm unsure why the Lord showed it to me as He did because it certainly is not going to be me that shall execute this judgment and i'm sure the Lord will explain it in time. There is carnage everywhere, mangled corpses and buildings, just utter devastation in both places. Some people were cursing and blaspheming God. i asked Him why and He said that He had hardened their hearts. America as we know it now shall cease to exist in short order, we shall no longer be a superpower for in the destructions that shall befall those 2 cities, will spell doom for the economy (which shall collapse first before the destructions) The nation will spiral into anarchy because of the great loss of the economy and the seat of government shall fall apart. The last thing that shall fall apart is the military might of this nation. This shall embolden the sons of Ishmael to rise up. The Lord showed me a sword which rose from the lands of Ishmael and was pointed against the west and there was war. Then the ride on the white horse arrives and stands between the 2 sides and brings about a temporary peace. Then the ride of the red horse comes and smites the earth with more war. That vision ended there.

Today i was in prayer before the Lord and felt the grief of the previous day and confessed my sins and begged the Lord for mercy. He showed me that in His wrath He is exercising mercy because in that many will be compelled to repent. This saves even more souls from eternal torment and the fire which burns forever. God is chastening us that we may choose reconciliation to Him by Christ's death. The Lord again reminded me that when He sends me out to warn people about the impending doom in New York and Washington, people would mock me but they are in fact mocking Him because it is His words i shall speak. When the destruction comes that mocking will become anger at Him but He shall rise up in my defense, yet not defending me but His word which He gave me. i was led to pray that i be able to stand on the promise that Christ goes before the Father on my behalf and indeed all our behalf that God's will be done in us. i was led to ask the Lord to make me stand firm in Him that His will may be done, that my flesh would be reduced to nothing so that His glory may be seen in me. My flesh does indeed rebel against God but praise Him that greater is He that is in me than the flesh and the one who is in the world. AMEN!!!

The fourth word - posted by IRONMAN (), on: 2006/9/30 22:48

this came to me on 12/9/05

12/09/05

Today as was lead to read about conduct in worship in Paul's letter to the Corinthians i learned that the reason for a woman covering her head in prayer and worship is to signify her submission to her husband and to God. The husband is her head just as Christ is the head of the church and God is the head of Christ. In this way prayers are not hindered by improper conduct and God is not tested. The Lord also revealed something more to me about the coming destruction to New York and Washington. In the vision He raised me up above the earth such that i could see the earth clearly and then He proceeded to cause a ball of fire to form in each hand. After this He raised my right arm and then the left one in succession and in the same order cast the ball of fire in my right hand toward the city of New York and the second one toward Washington. What the Lord revealed to me about this was that that which shall destroy these 2 places will appear as if from nothing. In the passage about the gifts of the spirit following the instruction about conduct in worship, the word speaks of the different gifts of the Spirit and one of them being working of miracles. This working of miracles is unexplainable by any means save to say that it is the hand of God. James wrote to me last week and spoke of a couple of visions he had of me. The one that is connected to this which the Lord showed me today is this:

In the second vision I was carried away and I beheld you in a room with no roof so that you could see the stars as you looked up the Lord told me:

“He is to make a demonstration of me in the heavenly places”

He said this to signify the manner of your ministry and a specific event.

After the Lord dropped that on my spirit He began to explain it to me. That which shall destroy those 2 cities will appear as is from nothing and men will know I am God. However men will use all manner of ways to explain it except to say it was the hand of the Lord. Some will repent in those days but there will be others who will not want to you. i thanked the Lord that He revealed this to me but then i realized that i like Jeremiah was undone. Here i am an unworthy sinful man and yet i have favour with the Lord such that He would show me these things. My very iniquity was laid bare before my eyes and i wept. Those things which i thought i'd buried away the Lord shall dig up and whatever i thought was hidden from sight by darkness the Lord's light shall make plain for all to see. Even so i pray only the Lord's will be done and that nothing of my flesh stand in the way of what the Lord is working in me and through me. My only concern now is that God's will be done. AMEN.

The Lord again came to me this day. i received an email from my dear brother Rahman concerning another brother of ours and the intercession our Lord has been burdening brother Rahman with. After i read the email i was filled with anguish over my own transgressions and sought the Lord's forgiveness and He had mercy on me. i felt broken in my spirit and wept bitterly. The Lord sent a cherub to me and as i lay there he knelt beside me and looking upon me with the face of a man told me to take courage because i had favour with the Lord. At this point he raised me up and whisked me away to be before the very Throne of God. i lay prostrate before Him and immediately began to praise the Lord in a tongue. After a time i began to weep over my own sinful state for the Lord laid bare my iniquity lest i be deceived into thinking my pres ence in heaven was deserved. i confessed my deserving of hell before Him and then the blessedness of Christ that He suffered for me that i may be in the Lord's presence. The attention then turned to my brethren whom the Lord has shown me are as walking zombies, dead in the Spirit and marching headlong into hell in this state. How i mourned them and sought the Lord to be my courage that i may not be afraid or ashamed to preach the gospel that many would be saved. i became aware of my mind and heart and the evils they are filled with as unfit tools for the work of God and the Lord said that they would be replaced with ones that seek after Him and His work. How grateful i was! The Lord then spoke saying that i had favour with Him and power with men, but not my own power but His power which He would dispense as He pleased. He instructed me not to move without the instruction of His Holy Spirit. i was yet in anguish over my brethren when the Lord said to me that i shall be a light to them along with many others out there that He is raising up for this work. The very light of the Lord shall shine through us, His Holiness and Righteousness shall be plain for all to see. He told me also however that those who refuse to look upon the light of the Lord shall perish. With this found myself in the room which James spoke of looking toward the stars. The Lord raised me above the earth and reminded me of what He showed me earlier concerning the suddenness of the destruction which shall come upon our cities of New York and Washington. As i was above the earth i was glad in the armour of gold which the Lord gave me earlier and He caused a ball of fire to form in my right hand then my left and in that order they were cast toward the earth. i was brought back down to the earth to survey the damage and the Lord said "behold your brethren." i was immediately gripped with a deep anguish as the Lord showed me a great multitude in a dark place being tortured and pleading for mercy. i knew then that this was what Enoch spoke of as being the hollows for the wicked. How i wept for them. Then the Lord moved me to confess His righteousness and His fairness in His decrees. i rejoiced in knowing the righteousness of God, not in the torment of my brethren. The Lord reminded me that i had favour in Him and power with men, but His power. He spoke to me telling me how i would be mocked, scorned and ridiculed for that which He will later pronounce through me, but yet not me but Him. He spoke to me about how i would be hated among men after these things come to pass but again not me but Him. He said that He would in nowise allow so much as a hair on my head to be harmed until it is time. He said that those who would rise up against me and again not me but Him would surely perish. Then He assured me that He has made every provision for every work He has for me to be done even until the very last work of martyrdom. At this He showed me again the vision of this; i was in chains looking pretty ragged and being led to a guillotine. i placed my head in it and after it was locked, i looked to heaven and gave thanks to God that the work which His servant had been given had been done by His power. i said to the Lord "now that your servant has completed the work you prepared i can come and rest in your bosom forever and ever. AMEN" With that the blade fell and i arose surrounded by light and immediately began to laugh with joy. At this point the cherub the Lord sent for me brought me back to earth where the Lord had me write this down. Blessed be the Lord God almighty that has seen fit to raise up a foolish, sinful creature as myself to His work and even allow him before His throne. Blessed be Christ by whose blood all this is possible. Blessed be God forever in all of heaven and all the earth. AMEN.

The fifth word - posted by IRONMAN (), on: 2006/9/30 22:53

from this point, this was what our Lord showed me when He called me before Him to give me some more details about all this.

This day our Lord called me before Him in prayer. HE shared with me His grief and anguish concerning our sinfulness. HE would that we would repent of our sins. He said to me that if we were to confess our sins before Him He would be sure to forgive us as He says in His word. How we have grieved Him and piled sin upon sin as high as heaven to cause Him to be angry with us and come to us with a sword! We have kindled the wrath of a Holy God and our sins require that He administer justice. He will surely chasten us and bring as many as would to repentance. What shall we do? We ought to repent, and confess our sins and He will have mercy on us.

Our Lord spoke to me concerning this word which He gave me on 7/30/05

Our Lord spoke to me thusly. We have set up for ourselves all manner of idol and temple and He is coming to us with a sword to smite these things. We have kindled His wrath and so He is coming to us in wrath to cast down these things. He spoke to me specifically about the economy of this nation, not that this is the only idol out there but the one He has chosen to speak to me about at this time. He said that for some it has become a temple and for others a god and that even some of us who are called by His name are guilty of worshipping mammon. He spoke of our economy as being marveled at by people the world over but He shall destroy it suddenly and we will know that He is God, and indeed all men shall know that He is God. He said also that once the warning of the impending collapse comes, the experts will scoff, laugh a and scorn the warning and indeed Him. This is because He has dulled their ears, blinded their eyes and dulled their minds. Our Lord also spoke of how He would raise up saints in those days to tend to those in need.

Dear saints for those that would, REPENT, REPENT, REPENT OR DIE!

The sixth word - posted by IRONMAN (), on: 2006/9/30 22:57

this came to me on 8/24/06

This day our Lord has given me more information concerning this word which He gave me on 9/5/06

What He told me today was as follows:

The day of calamity is coming fast, like an eagle on mighty wings. It will come suddenly, violently and those whose hopes were in mammon will be sorely disappointed. Mocking and scorning will continue even on that last day. Many will say that the day has come but nothing has happened. God said though “In My time it will all come to pass. Many shall perish in that day not just in body but for all eternity because they have not repented. Even so many shall I come to me with humble and contrite hearts and repent and I shall save them. There are those who will blaspheme* My Name, howbeit there is a remnant among them which I have my hand upon and they shall repent and I shall save them! Behold a spirit of evil shall come upon those who are not called by My Name and they shall loot, pillage, rape and murder. They shall commit all manner of evil deed against all others. But I am the Lord your God and no harm shall befall those that are mine unless I allow it. Men shall cease to have regard for the law and those who are charged with enforcing it will be unable to stem the tide of evil. Not even martial law will be sufficient as men cease to heed the laws; the government shall fall apart because that government that ceases to be able to control its people and maintain order ceases to be a government. The military will groan under the weight of the anarchy and will begin to crumble. The sons of Ishmael will come forth having much zeal and anger and they shall attack my chosen nation and make war on the world. At this time the ride of the white horse shall stand between both sides and bring about a temporary peace. He is one who is an agent of the enemy, having authority in his kingdom and with his minions. He will bring about a temporary peace to seal his ascension to power. Thereafter the rider of the red horse shall come forth and bring war to the world again.

• Mark chapt 3 vs 28 says:

28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: 29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: 30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

One can blaspheme Christ and yet be forgiven, for example, those who blasphemed Him on the cross were prayed for by Christ when He asked God to forgive them for they didn't know what they were doing. However to blaspheme Holy Spirit is to deny the very power by which God acts and is thus forfeiture of salvation and for this, there can be no forgiveness. The name of God may be blasphemed and forgiveness sought and granted by Him.

Brethren

i have laid it all out as i believe i heard it from our Lord. i've been told a few times that i seem to say these things easily. There are some travails which our Lord has brought me through which you may not be privy to. there have been moments wherein i thought i was losing it only to have our Lord give me just enough to know that i'm not. those called to the prophetic would know this very well! however because of this God has made it easier for me to say what i believe i hear from Him because He gives me grace enough to do so.

as for the economy collapsing, i'm no economist so i have no idea exactly what the mechanics will be, all i know is that it will be like the great depression, on a bigger scale. as for why our Lord would tell me these things all i know is it pleases Him so to use the base things to upturn the important ones, the foolish to undo the wise and the weak to undo the strong. in this way He is assured of getting all the glory since there is no other explanation except that it was His hand. to me this is plain from the people He used in times past to do His work, the last people anyone would have chosen.

i say this not as a defense but as a testimony. if God proves me to me a lunatic i'll apologize, then sit down and be quiet and i hope you would hold me up in prayer coz i will sure be in need of it.

if God proves this to be His hand at work then i pray He binds us together ever more tightly in Him than ever before beca use we will have much work to do and little time to do it in.

God bless

Do you really think it appropriate to use Sermonindex as a personal blog of your 'call to the prophetic'? Personally, I think k this is an abuse of the forum.

Really!!? Are you prepared to say what he has posted is wrong, abusive or out of order? What part is wrong? What part i s out of order?

Perhaps it is you and you who need to read Revelation 18? The clarion call has been sounded many times before and ig nored. With what we see happening in the world don't you believe it is high time we start paying attention?

Before Ezekiel 38&39 can happen I believe this nation will at least be neutralized per Rev.18 ---- at worse, destroyed. Ti me to wake up.

hey bro Ron

what took you so long?! :-P bro Ron i have no blog of my own and God had me post this here for whoever would hear th e word. also as our Lord has given me occasion and grace i have spoken of these things to those around me also. now t hat this is on public record, if it pans out i'm wrong there is evidence which i will not be able to refute, not that i would tho ugh. if it pans out that God has spoken through me, the record is here too so that no man will be able to refute that these things have been spoken before time. also untill God has me make the proclamation of these things 3 days before it hap pens, i have received no further instructions on how to get the word out there other than S.I. and speaking to people. As for the announcement 3 days prior, i have not heard further how God is going to do that, perhaps media but i suppose it would have to be pretty dramatic to get the media's attention, He may do something else, a sign in the heavens perhaps, i don't know. i've not been told anything further nor have i felt led to to ask and at the end of the day it doesn't matter.

if you think it inappropriate that's fine bro, the bottom line is if indeed it is God who has spoken here through this foolish descendant Ham we need to act. if we are in need of repentance then we best do so NOW. ultimately if it is He who has spoken (and i believe so for i have no reason to believe otherwise) you or anyone else who reads this will not be able to say "i didn't get the memo" coz it's here. there are some other saints ot there (praise God) whom i've been led to these t hings to and they can bear witness. Some are on S.I. and others aren't. if we're wrong, then there will be a whole lot of p eople in need of your prayers bro Ron and if be so i pray you step to the plate.

you know what you alluded to here about self examination is very important. We tend to want to think everyone else is wrong but not us so this applies to you bro Ron and indeed to us all. bro Ron i guess it's safe to say you think this not to be of God, what if it is and you jump through all kinds of hoops to evade that? that goes for anyone i guess. i've sought our Lord on this for over a year as diligently as i could, and He is my witness. in many dark moments i thought i was off in the deep lost somewhere only to have Him confirm what i heard Him say.

bro O you also mentioned so many times the clarion call has gone out and not been heard. in the days of noah and even in the days of the other prophets everyone (or most people anyway) much have thought "these people are nuts, why would God send them? who do they think they are?" and probably a host of other things and like the word says, these last days it will be just like in the days of noah...nothing has changed indeed.

i went through those scriptures you mentioned and God brought to remembrance some other things HE has shown me. one of which stands out and it's this vision of an arab-looking man in armour with a sword which he had raised up and was going to smite Israel with it. he brought the sword down for the blow and then a rock appeared and covered Israel and his sword was shattered. this to me spoke of a much wider assault on Israel than the present...oh what interesting times we live in...

God bless you bro

Lord your will be done

Ormly,

I know I haven't read all through this and the previous post, but this strikes me as rude and presumptuous in itself.

First off, philologos said absolutely nothing of the sort and your aggressive attitude seems rather a bit unwarranted.

Personally, reading philologos's comments suggest to me that he finds it more appropriate to post such things in more suitable places - this board, as much of it as I have read, seems better suited for discussion and event-based news. His comments were never that Ironman was not a true prophet, but inferred that such an action (post) was inappropriate, of which I am not inclined to disagree.

Ironman,

As a suggestion, please consider posting such things elsewhere first (on other places, such as <http://www.livejournal.com> or a number of other free blog hosts) and link to it. I'm not suggesting you don't put such things up here (ala access), but a slight removal and light description may be better suited for such things.

My understanding is that this forum is primarily for the purpose of discussing Revival and the sermons contained on Ser monIndex.net. Greg can correct Ron if he wants, however this I agree with him. IRONMAN, if you don't have your own bl og, go and set one up and (www.blogger.com) Blogger or the like. After all it is free, and relatively easy to set up.

Most people here who use the forum for any other purpose have asked Greg's permission first. Perhaps you have, I don't know. So Ormlly, I think Ron has raised a valid point, that needs to be considered.

Re: - posted by IRONMAN (), on: 2006/10/2 19:46

brethren
what our Lord has had me do here is to that end of bringing forth revival. Before Revival can come, we must repent and t hese coming judgments have to do with bringing us to repentance. Ultimately this has to do with revival and God's glory. i felt no leading to start a blog or anything, just a leading to post here and that's done.

Re:, on: 2006/10/3 6:38

It might be of importance to remember what the word "repent" means --- and it doesn't mean necessarily to change from sin but simply change your thinking as from something that is worthless to something that has worth as in "worthship".

"What are my values or what do I value the most", comes to mind quickly and do I need to "repent" in any way? If intima cy with the Father is my quest; abiding in His Kingdom, the door opening and me fitting through it becomes the issue. In other words, I see it but, can I fit through it?

having read your prophecy above, i would like to share what the Lord showed me in 2008.

i saw a vision of myself, and i was walking side by side with someone that i could not see, on a sandy road surrounded by trees. and the Lord let me know in my spirit that it was Him walking besides me. as we continued walking, we started to ascend towards heaven and i saw coming from heaven at very high speed, a huge ball of fire being hurled down to the earth, i believe by God Himself, even though i did not see Him, i knew the ball of fire was from Him. as it landed on earth, there was some writing in fire on some type of a board, and i could not make out what was written. and i heard the voice of the Lord say in a loud and very clear voice; 'REPENT, JUDGEMENT IS COMING SOON'. with those words, the vision ended.
