Welcome ot SermonIndex! There have been several threads about the definition of "revival" in the forums. I performed a search using the SEARCH feature at the top, and I found some existing threads (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?mode=viewtopic&topic_id11469&forum40&start20&viewmode=flat&order1) here, (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id9781&forum40#75167) here, (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id1586&forum40#9874) here, (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id1311&forum40#7775) here, (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id754&forum40#3871) here, and (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id250&forum35#1140) here.

By the way, there are several great audio messages about revival found in the (<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/>) AUDIO SERMONS link found on the left in the MAIN MENU. Many of my favorite messages on the subject of "revival" are preached by men like Leonard Ravenhill and David Wilkerson. To find other messages on the topic of revival, simply use the search term "revival."

Again, welcome to SermonIndex! I pray that you will find the resources available here both encouraging and challenging as you grow in the Lord!

One of the best definitions I have heard came back in 1992:

Revival... when the Church gets right.
