Snowmen!

(Matthew Meade, "The Almost Christian")

What pains do children take to scrape and roll the snow together to make a snowman.
But soon after it is done, the heat of the sun
dissolves it, and it comes to nothing.

The greatest treasures of worldly people are but snowmen! When death and judgment come, they melt away, and come to nothing!
"The world with its lust is passing away."

1 John 2:17

Sadly, some of the things worldly people treasure, Christians treasure too.

Hence the indifference to the lost state of souls in this day and age.

Hence the fact, that the same worldly treasures keep or pull Christians away from God, because they would rather sacrifice eternity, than those treasures, whether they realise it or not.

Let's treasure the true riches, the Lord Jesus Christ.

God bless.
