My Friend, I stand in Judgment now,
and feel that you're to blame somehow.

On earth, I walked with you day by day,
and never did you point the way.

You knew the Lord in truth and glory,
but never did you tell the story.

My knowledge then was very dim,
you could have led me safe to Him.

Though we lived together on the earth,
you never told me of the second birth.

And now I stand this day condemned,
because you failed to mention Him.

You taught me many things, that's true,
I called you "friend" and trusted you.

But I learn now that it's too late,
you could have kept me from this fate.

We walked by day and talked by night,
and yet you showed me not the Light.

You let me live, and love, and die,
you knew I'd never live on high.

Yes, I called you a "friend" in life,
and trusted you through joy and strife.

And yet on coming to the end,
I cannot, now, call you "My Friend."

I have some former friends that I haven't testify them about Jesus, many I haven't seen them with years, some of them are here, just to make effort to reach them. Many times I have dreamt some of them how all of us together sing songs to Jesus, what a blessing. This is my big desire, some of them to come Christ and sing together. Help us God... This poem is to shake me!

A Voice From Hell

You lived next door to me for years.
We shared our dreams, our joys and tears.
A friend to me you were indeed;
A friend who helped me when in need.

What sadness then IÂ've come to find

That after all you weren't so kind!
The day my life on earth did end
I found you weren't a faithful friend!

For all those years we spent on earth,
You never talked of "second birth."
You never spoke of my lost soul
And of the Christ who'd make me whole!

Please do not err, my friend, again!
Do all you can for souls of men;
Plead with them now quite earnestly
Lest they be cast in hell with me!
