hey everybody i was looking around today and God showed me this (https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?topic_id2057&forum13) link and it really served to show me just how just how young I really am and how blessed i am to have found this stockpile of Godly men's messages. I also wanted to post and thank everyone specially those that were here when i first arrived, this website(specifically, Tozer's "The Holiness of God" and Reidhead "Ten Shekels and a Shirt") was the vessel through which God showed me what it meant to be a christian and brought me to my knees and out of a life of cultural christianity. Thank God for his awesome holiness.
