I'm praying. Praise the Lord for his improvement.

May the grace and mercy of God sustain Bob, his family, and you during this time.

He is doing so much better.
He is out of ICU, and will get to stay at the same Hospital for his rehab.
I talked with him last night, and even though he knows he has a long way to go, he was optimistic.
May God Bless all of you who prayed.
I'm without a Church Home at the present time, and know that sometimes I can be needy.
I do praise God for this web-site, and for Christians who will pray, for whosoever has a need.

Merry Christmas to all, and may God Bless you Spiritually this Season, and all Seasons.
Nell

Hi Nellie...

Thank you for the update. I'm praying. I've also added your brother (and family) to several other prayer groups (in the United States and Mexico). Be encouraged that many are bringing this matter before the Lord in prayer.

It is a privilege to share in some way your concerns and each other's. :-)

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.
