Belated Hello SI, on: 2007/2/9 17:17

Have been coming to sermonindex.net for quite sometime taking advantage of such a Godly and Powerfull site. So much treasure and riches to be found here that words can't express. I've grown in Spirit because of sermonindex, so thought it over do to become involved and sign up. I'm 50 years old and have alot of time on my hands as i've recently had a guadruple by pass, then days later after this to be put back into surgery to have a pasemaker put in. Thanks be to God i'm healing quite good to be honest. God is so good and so faithfull. While healing up, sermonindex has become my church and oh what a church.

God bless you brother and may God continue to speak to you and strengthen your Spirit until that "great day" when Christ comes back for His Church.
