

General Topics :: Oswald Chambers

Oswald Chambers - posted by Goldminer (), on: 2007/3/2 8:54

Quote:

"To enter into peace for ourselves without becoming either tolerantly unwatchful of other lives or an amateur providence over them is supremely difficult. God holds us responsible for two things in connection with the lives He brings around us in the apparent haphazard of His providence; insistent waiting on God for them and inspired instruction and warning from God to them. The thing that astonishes us is the way God holds us responsible for others' lives."

Oswald Chambers