Hi, you've got a great site. I've read a few articles, as well as messages and audio, and really looking forward to hearing more.

Also looking forward to knowing and growing together with you, so send to me if you'd like.

Blessings to you all in Christ.

Great to see that you found this resource and joined as a member. God bless you as you continue to seek more of God. I encourage you strongly if you haven't please listen to this life-changing message by Paris Reidhead: Ten Shekels and a Shirt.

Also I highly recommend this two messages:

Hey, I'm new here too - only about five weeks, and let me tell you, this site is addictive.

I still take time out to write for my own site, but then I hurry back here.

Already, I've made friends where we chat privately - it's so wonderful for sermonindex to have started this place.

It's fun, it's serious, it's takes a thick skin to fight politely for your beliefs, but it is definately worth it.

And the treasure of sermons - another great blessing.

Welcome, and many Blessings!
