Hello there!

I'm a college student (a state school) who serves at his local church. I've stopped by this site before, but I decided to come by again and check it out.

Nice to meet you. I am fairly new here also. Many great sermons to chew on.

Nice meeting you too.

And I forgot, my name is Matt.

hello Matt,

Welcome to the family.

You will find many hours of excellent food here.

The interaction between the brothers and sisters sharing on this forum is good for our growth. We don't all agree, some strongly, but do agree to love each other any way.

Don't be easily offended if someone challenges your position. Take it as an opportunity to dig into what you believe and why. I have found in some cases I have gained more understanding and grown thereby, however I have also found that I have become more solidified in what God has already revealed to my heart.

Gain understanding as you look around, and His peace into your house.

Being new here myself,(6 Weeks), I take great pleasure in saying glad to have you with us.

You'll find that SermonIndex has a great table of rich sermons and debates.

I hope you'll join in frequently.

Blessings,
