

News and Current Events :: Global Day of Prayer*Global Day of Prayer - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/17 22:50

What do you think about this? A South African businessman started this "global day of prayer" a few years ago, and now it has gained astonishing momentum. It takes place on May 27th, Pentecost Sunday (as they call it). Churches in most nations participate, many denominations are pulling together on it, as well as the Roman Catholics...

Last year's event was touted as the "the largest prayer meeting in the history of the world."

===

edit - videos to youtube and other sites are prohibited on sermonindex.net due to vulgar and questionable content.

===

But anyway, what do you think about this? More canned stuff? Ecumenical agenda?

My own feelings? I don't doubt many many sincere sheep of God's pasture are involved in this. But the day of great deception Jesus prophesied would come is upon us! Keep your heads up, people of God.

AD

Re: Global Day of Prayer - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/17 23:21

...I had provided a link for a "promo" video on Global Day of Prayer being shown on youtube, but I guess it's been edited out.

AD

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/18 2:11

I have many questions about this..

I did the 24/7 prayer tent

I see the same thing, that happening with global day of prayer as with 24/7 prayer

Making it whoever wants to come, come and pray.

People would come, praying. But I am not sure God heard all the prayers that were made. First some were not saved, and says he doesn't listen to unsaved. It seems they don't care who comes to pray, just come and pray. I don't think it is right to co-work with darkness, what does light have to do with the dark? Light shines in darkness, but not work with it. Darkness can't help light. It is wrong to tell those who come and pray and God will bless you. Why do we pray? We pray because we are broken for our nation. we pray because God is not getting honor. Is this why people are coming to pray, to be blessed? When I was in the prayer tent people came and went. When it was over people went back to their lives. now they said that people would help people after? I have never done anything with the global day of prayer until this year. There is a pastor from Africa coming to Tucson to speak for global day of prayer. I am to pray for him as he speaks. But he is with pray quake you can look and tell me what you think.

I think that they are boasting in the number of people who came to pray. But what about those who truly came to know the Lord? what is being preached at these events? please I would like to know what people think about this event. How could God use it? what good could come of it?

How could it be hurtful?

In his love
charlene

Re: Global Day of Prayer - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/18 10:26

There are a couple of things that trouble me about this.

One, this is part of the ecumenical agenda, part of the false unity that is coming into being in the denominational churches these days. (To make no mention of the Roman Catholic and Orthodox churches being involved.) But even among the Protestant/fundamentalist/pentecostal/charismatic denominations they are fabricating a "unity" in which you can continue to maintain your denominational differences and identity (things that have torn and divided the Body of Christ for hundreds of years) ...and yet can come together under a great ecumenical umbrella. And this is supposed to be pleasing to God? Christians are assuming that this kind of unity meets God's expectation "that they all may be one." It does not. Yet many genuine sheep of God's pasture all over the world are involved in this. Where is their discernment? Why have the sheep shepherds not taught them discernment? Their shepherds have failed them.

The second thing is that young people are being encouraged, as part of this global day of prayer, to go find the highest point of their city and meet there, and "do something creative for God." I'm hearing this emphasis on "being creative" more and more these days. But where in Scripture am I told to be inventive, be creative, do my own thing, to please God?

The Son of God did not do this. When the Devil tempted Him in the wilderness to be creative, and turn the stones into bread, He recognized it as a temptation, and resisted it. The rule of HIS life was, "The Son can do nothing of Himself but what He seeth the Father do" (Jn 5.19). Yet the leadership are teaching the young to get out there and come up with their own good ideas, and find some "creative" way to worship and please God.

This is disturbing. If you can find a way to watch the promo video for the Global Day of Prayer on Youtube, you'll see on the Canadian Venue young people dancing reggae (I think that's what it was) as "their creative way" to worship God!

More and more you are broken up for the things taking place in God's heritage. Woe unto us for these things! God has an issue with the shepherds these days, for not teaching His people discernment!

AD

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/18 15:10

false unity, I think this is very true!!

But even among the Protestant/fundamentalist/pentecostal/charismatic denominations they are fabricating a "unity" in which you can continue to maintain your denominational differences and identity (things that have torn and divided the Body of Christ for hundreds of years) maybe there's a reason these were divided?

I don't think we can go to God and worship how ever we want, can we?

in his love

charlene

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/19 18:31

I saw the the video, I have seen this kind of dancing at an event before. when I first came to know the Lord and at the time I thought it was cool, but now I see it can't honor God.

I do think that there is dance that can honor God. I took dance for two years, and with much prayer, God said there is a wrong and right way. That is in the Spirit and in the flesh. If someone is dancing after we want to see it moved you to worship God. Not that it could hinder you.

there is a Church Uganda (Christain Life Church In Kampala. They said it grew from 7 people to 2,000 in two weeks and it says to day it has 40,000 members. and it has planted 600 Churches. of different denominations. Maybe this is God's mighty work?

If we look at Church history our forefathers were very careful when they allowed someone to be a member. So how did they check that all 40,00 are really saved? and who is helping them in their walk now?

This man who is the pastor is the one who is speaking for the Global day of prayer.
there three verse is based on 2 chorn 7:14
: if my poeple humble themselves... and John 17:21 Be one as he is one John 13:35
if my disicples, if you love one other.

These are very good verse. But I worried, because it doesn't talk about Christ at all
The death, the cross, our sins. What are they repenting from?

In his love
cahrlene

Re: - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/19 20:40

Yes, I know there is such a thing as "dancing in the Spirit." I've seen a little of it, and it is something done spontaneously in the anointing. Can't be learned, can't be practised.

...As to the church in Uganda, I don't know anything about it. But I do know God is meeting the hunger of His people in many "third world" countries, as they are called.

And it seems many of them are quite involved in this Global Day of Prayer.

As I said earlier, I have no doubt many genuine sheep of God's pasture are involved in this thing. They need to be taught discernment, and I believe God is going to teach them.

We see much mixture of good and bad, real and false, flesh and Spirit, anointing and anti-anointing... in the churches of our day. All over the world.

God will not leave things in this state forever. A great purifying is at hand. God will bring an end to the day of "mixture." The tares will be separated from the wheat. The good fish will be brought together in vessels, and the bad fish thrown away.

This purifying is a great work of God we are in the beginnings of. He will complete His work. "Then shall the righteous shine as the sun in the kingdom of their Father." (Mt. 13:43).

So if some have a little more discernment, a little more light, than others, let us walk in our pathway with fear and trembling, and with grace. The only security against deception for any of us is not in trusting in our knowledge, but in a close, intimate walk with Him who is Himself the Light.

AD

Re:, on: 2007/5/19 20:59

This was on (<http://www.heraldofhiscoming.com/other/home.htm>) Herald Of His Coming's website:

Ten Days of Constant Prayer – May 17-26
Global Day of Prayer – May 27

"For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea"
– Habakkuk 2:14

Day 1 – Thursday, May 17:
Seeking THE KINGDOM OF GOD

For the transforming power of Christ's kingdom

"...and speaking of the things concerning the kingdom of God. Gathering them together, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father had promised, 'Which,' He said, 'you heard of from Me...'" — Acts 1:3-4

For the Glory of Christ:

- For the hearts of God's people to blaze with love and loyal obedience to Jesus as King and Lord of all.
- For the goodness and glory of Christ's kingly love to be experienced by many throughout whole cities.
- For Christ to gather and instruct His people from the Scriptures concerning the hope of His life-giving kingdom.

For the Blessing of the Nations:

- For Christ to bring believers to dwell in cities where breakthroughs of blessing have not yet occurred. Pray that they would patiently pursue the promised blessing of Christ's kingdom in difficult places.
- That the power of Christ's love would bring lasting transformation throughout entire communities.

Day 2 — Friday, May 18:

Increasing in UNITED PRAYER

For sustained movements of united prayer

"These all with one mind were continually devoting themselves to prayer..."

— Acts 1:14

For the Glory of Christ:

- That God would unite us in prayer with "one mind," (Acts 1:14, 2:46, 4:24), empowering us to pray passionately together for Christ's glory in all the world.
- That God would hear and answer the prayers of the poor, the young and the marginalized and would be glorified by their praises.

For the Blessing of the Nations:

- That God's Spirit would inspire and empower believers to pray specific blessings upon their neighbors and friends.
- That people throughout our communities would be moved to call out to God for His help as never before.
- That the leaders of our community would ask God for His wisdom and hope.

Day 3 — Saturday, May 19:

Being filled with THE HOLY SPIRIT

For God to pour out His Spirit upon all

"'In the last days,' God says, 'I will pour out My Spirit on all people...'"

— Acts 2:17

For the Glory of Christ:

- For the Church to be filled afresh with God's Spirit, empowered as Christ's witnessing servants in the world.
- For the Spirit of God to reveal Jesus to those buried in spiritual darkness.

For the Blessing of the Nations:

- That God would pour out His Spirit upon every person alive on the earth.
- That the Spirit of God would awaken the nations to hear His voice and to see His works (Acts 2:33).
- For many to be stirred by Spirit-given dreams to envision Jesus alive and at work in their lives.

Day 4 – Sunday, May 20:

Turning to God in REPENTANCE

For many to turn from sin to new life in Christ

"Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord"

– Acts 3:19

For the Glory of Christ:

• For Christ to encounter people with His forgiving love, so that millions turn from their sin to the joy of following Him.

• That the Spirit of God would help many to recognize how they have grieved God and openly confess their sin.

• That the Word of the cross of Christ would break the grip of sin's power so that many will find hope for their sins to "be wiped out" (Acts 3:19).

For the Blessing of the Nations:

• That God would bless His people by helping them be the first to turn "from their wicked ways" (Acts 3:26) so that massive movements of repentance would sweep through whole communities.

• That these movements of repentance would bring "times of refreshing" (Acts 3:19) so that men, women and children would experience the presence of God.

Day 5 – Monday, May 21:

Pursuing THE PEACE OF CHRIST

For relationships to be transformed

"Everyone was filled with awe...All the believers were together...Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need...They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people..."

– Acts 2:43-47

For the Glory of Christ:

• That God would release outbreaks of Christ's peace all over the world through the changed lives of His people.

• That reconciliation among churches would remove divisions and hostilities, marking relationships among Christians with love, joy, unity and gladness of heart. For Christ to move so powerfully and clearly that His people, as well as the onlooking world, are "filled with awe" (2:43).

For the Blessing of the Nations:

• For God's people to turn away from greed and worldly desires and become more generous than ever.

• For God to intervene in wars, restraining spiritual forces of evil, subduing terrorism, and protecting the lives of those afflicted.

• For God to use Christians to help lift people from the oppression of extreme poverty. It is estimated that a billion people struggle to survive on less than one dollar a day.

Day 6 – Tuesday, May 22:

Empowering THE COMING GENERATION

For God's purpose for families and children

"For the promise is for you and your children..."

– Acts 2:39

For the Glory of Christ:

• For Christ to strengthen marriages and homes.

- For young people to follow Christ early in life, serving Him with a lifetime of extreme devotion.
- That young leaders would be recognized and released to help churches (Acts 6:3-7).

For the Blessing of the Nations:

- That Christians would boldly show the love of God's family to orphans, widows, the defenseless, and the homeless.
- For Christians to extend God's fatherly love to millions of children orphaned by wars and the HIV/AIDS epidemic.
- For God to empower the coming generation to fulfill His promises throughout the earth.

Day 7 – Wednesday, May 23:

Resounding THE CALL OF GOD

For the nations to hear the voice of God

"...and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself"

– Acts 2:39

For the Glory of Christ:

- For the Word of God to be proclaimed to people of every language, tribe and nation (Acts 1:8, 2:5).
- That the world would hear of the "mighty deeds of God" in the words of their own language and the ways of their own culture (Acts 2:11).
- For Christ to be followed in every people, especially among the thousands of unreached people groups who still lack vital, growing, multiplying churches.

For the Blessing of the Nations:

- For the Bible to be translated for the 2,500 people groups without even one verse in their language.
- That the Bible, published in diverse media, would become available to people everywhere.
- That God would call many to Himself (Acts 2:39) who would call on Him to be saved (Acts 2:21).

Day 8 – Thursday, May 24:

Suffering with power for THE GLORY OF JESUS

For the faithful courage of His people

"...rejoicing because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name"

– Acts 5:41

For the Glory of Christ:

- That those who face opposition because they serve Christ will respond with the gentle, courageous character of Jesus (Acts 4:13).
- For Christians who suffer for Christ's name to be strong in joy and faith.
- For God to glorify Himself by His great deeds in places where He is rejected (Acts 4:21).

For the Blessing of the Nations:

- For our leaders and governments to be blessed.
- That government leaders who oppose Christ (Acts 4:25-27) would be blessed with wisdom so as not to be found "fighting against God" (Acts 5:39).

Day 9 – Friday, May 25:

Bringing THE HEALING OF CHRIST

For Christ to bring substantial healing

"Stretch out Your hand to heal and perform miraculous signs and wonders through the name of Your Holy Servant Jesus

"

• Acts 4:30

For the Glory of Christ:

• That communities would see the hand of Christ extended, bringing miraculous healing among the sick (Acts 5:14-16).

• That the name of Jesus would be declared with signs and wonders in the presence of many (Acts 3:16).

For the Blessing of the Nations:

• For the end of HIV/AIDS in our generation.

• For Christians to act with wisdom, compassion and persistence to eradicate diseases.

• For Christians to engage in providing basic health care to the needy. Thousands of children die daily worldwide from preventable diseases.

• For God's people to work wisely, trusting God to work powerfully, in order to bring healing to the land.

Pentecost Sunday, May 27

A Global Day of Prayer

Day 10 • Saturday, May 26:

Extending THE BLESSING OF CHRIST

For promised blessing among all peoples

"He said to Abraham, "Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed"

• Acts 3:25

For the Glory of Christ:

• For Christians to live in expectancy that the ancient promise of blessing would soon be fulfilled, bringing transformation to their communities and countries.

• That Jesus, Abraham's greatest descendant, would be seen for all He really is among all peoples.

• For churches to work together as one family in Jesus' name, co-working with God to change lives, cities, and nations.

For the Blessing of the Nations:

• For the righteousness and justice of God to affect the ways of commerce and politics, cleansing whole societies from the curse of corruption.

• For the peace of Christ's kingdom to influence the way cities and nations are governed.

• For the joy of Christ's kingdom to erupt in celebrations of grateful praise amidst every people group on earth.

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/19 22:03

Roniya

thanks it is a good website.

In his love

charlene

Re: Global Day of Prayer - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/19 23:18

Concerning Roniya's posting:

That is certainly a very comprehensive and detailed agenda they have laid out.

AD

Re: - posted by nizero, on: 2007/5/20 2:10

Quote:
-----they are fabricating a "unity" in which you can continue to maintain your denominational differences and identity (things that have torn and divided the Body of Christ for hundreds of years) ...and yet can come together under a great ecumenical umbrella.

First of all I would like to state that there are absolute truths in scripture and I am not relativist in my ways of thinking. But the above statement is quite disturbing because it causes more division within the body than to edify and unite.

It is true that some denominations tend to lean either charismatic or reformed but there are believers on both sides of the fence.

For instance Wesley and Edwards both were contemporary revival preachers of their day, both used by God, both had different ideas on the manifestation of the holy spirit. Wesley was charismatic and Edwards tended to be more reformed.

Both prayed and God heard them.

I do not see this as ecumenical because they both had a passion to see Jesus Christ exalted above all else.

I think people's idea of unity is "if you think my way then we are united" verses the true unity found in the body of Christ.

If you read the values and declaration of faith for Global Day of Prayer, I have found no area of doctrine that is unbiblical.

And you should read about the transformation and revival that broke out in Uganda through prayer. It is a great testimony of the power of prayer.

I leave with this set of scripture to meditate on.

I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought.

1 Corinthians 1:10

Immediately after Paul is rebuking the church about the division in the body he immediately humbles himself seen in chapter 2.

For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.

1 Corinthians 2:2

and finally

9But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and arguments and quarrels about the law, because these are unprofitable and useless. 10Warn a divisive person once, and then warn him a second time. After that, have nothing to do with him. 11 You may be sure that such a man is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned.

Titus 3:9

In Christ,
Cesar

Re: - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/20 14:53

Yes, you are right: there are Christians, true Christians, on "both sides of the fence." There are true believers scattered throughout all the denominations.

And in fact, over the centuries, there have been powerful moves of the Spirit of God that touched differing denominations at the same time. I think of The Great Awakening, as an example of this.

But I believe we are in the beginnings of days when God is going to bring His people together from all "places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day" (Ezek. 34.12). The unity He has in mind is so high and holy, none of us could bring it into being with the work of our own hands. It's HIS work. You can read about it in Ephesians 4, and John 17, and other places. It's a unity among ALL the people of God as vital and as beautiful as the union between the Father and the Son. It's the glory of God revealed!

I long for this. When you get even a glimpse of it, it makes all else so glaringly short. Short of the glory of God, I mean.

I am not a divisive person. I know what I have been through. I love our Lord Jesus Christ. And I love the people of God. I don't know what more I can do but keep my eyes upon the Hope He has planted in my heart, and wait for Him to bring it to pass. It's just that it grieves your spirit to see this "other" unity coming into being with such momentum these days. We've been told we must be careful about this "one world church" that is supposed to come about in the last days. Well, I see it coming, and not only coming: it's here already for those who have eyes to see!

And so I think we as God's people need to be careful we don't fall asleep these days. We need to be watchful, and alert, and guarding what is both our responsibility and privilege to "prove all things" in this very difficult and demanding day. "Prove all things. Hold fast that which is good" (1 Thes. 5.21).

Thanks for sharing.

AD

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/21 0:10

And so I think we as God's people need to be careful we don't fall asleep these days. We need to be watchful, and alert, and guarding what is both our responsibility and privilege to "prove all things" in this very difficult and demanding day. "Prove all things. Hold fast that which is good" (1 Thes. 5.21).

Think this very true we have to be careful.

Be wise in the word!!! We are to love each other as our selves, but we are to hold fast to truth!!! we must obey God first.

There are things that will bring disunity, because of truth, we can't give up truth for unity.

In his love
charlene

Re: - posted by ADisciple (), on: 2007/5/21 0:39

Quote:

awakenwithin wrote:

There are things that will bring disunity, because of truth, we can't give up truth for unity.

Amen. Thanks for saying this. Jesus Himself-- and many of His disciples through the ages-- could have spared themselves the Cross if they had just been a little less in love with The Truth.

AD

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/22 2:24

I thought about unity in prayer today.

God only Hears His children when they pray.

So even if 120,000 met to pray, but didn't know the Lord, it would be all in vain? I think this is true. In James 5 It talks about one man's prayer that stopped rain and prayed again and it rained.

I have had the thought you needed lots of people for something big to happen. Yum I'm not sure that's true. I'm starting to think that one old, or young woman, or man could pray with such faith, that America should turn around. Of course it would be God working through them. I think a thing to remember is our prayer behind closed doors can be powerful.

God doesn't need the biggest prayer meeting to do His work. Although I strongly support people praying together, but with the right heart before God. In Acts they said they met daily and prayed! But I don't think it should come from an event, but from a hunger to pray. If people are wanting to see God move in America, we will start praying in our homes, at work, at Church. I pray that this event will move in people's hearts to seek after God more. Amen for what God is going to do through those who are seeking Him in this week, May we too, pray for our nation.

In his love
Charlene

Re: Global Day of Prayer, on: 2007/5/24 9:09

awakenwithin said

Quote:

-----But I am not sure God heard all the prayers that were made. First some were not saved, and says he doesn't listen to unsaved.

Hmmm....

Charlene, I think this may be slightly too black and white a statement.

Surely there is a first time for everyone, and no-one is 'saved' before they have prayed the first time? :-?

DO you love prayer? - posted by Psalm73 (), on: 2007/5/24 10:04

The prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it be fervent (1526 variant). Yes I see that there could be some strife, I realize that biblically some walls might be hard to crack, but carry around brotherly love.

Global gettogethers are all for the purpose of false unity under the beast and his image, careful don't blaspheme the Holy Ghost.

David is dead and buried, yet Christ is risen, and sitteth on the right hand of God.

Quote:

dorcas wrote:
awakenwithin said

Quote:
-----But I am not sure God heard all the prayers that were made. Frist some were not saved, and says he dosn't listen to unsaved.

Hmmm....

Charlene, I think this may be slightly too black and white a statement.

Surely there is a first time for everyone, and no-one is 'saved' before they have prayed the first time? :-?

Listen you are first saved, then after the hearing of faith, you learn and keep his commandments.

Example; 1 Cor 13:20 Brethren, be not children in wit: as concerning maliciousness be children: but in wit be perfect.
14:36 ¶ Sprong the word of God from you? other came it unto you only?
37 If any man think himself a prophet either spiritual: let him understand, what things I write unto you. For they are the c ommandments of the Lord.
38 But and if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore brethren covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
40 Let all things be done honestly and in order.

A young man that is alone, it is not good for him, when he is persecuted, his footsteps hunted out, and laid into his daily bonds.

The persecute you because his commandment is to abstain from things offered unto images, from strangled, from blood and from fornicacion. If you keep yourself from such, ye do well so far ye well. Acts 15

Prayer and fasting of this people is oft not heard by God, try Isaiah 58 of the Online Bible TRC 1537 Matthew's faithofgo d.net for a clear ghostly example.

Isaiah 55:1 ¶ Thus sayeth the LORD: Keep equity, and do right, for my saving health shall come shortly, and my righteousnes shall be opened.

2 Blisssed is the man that doth this, and the man's child which keepeth the same. He that taketh heed, that he unhallow not the Sabbath (that is) he that keepeth himself that he do no evil.

God is not causer of strife, but questions and cursed speakyng are. No false witnes bearyng

Why do the brethren go to law with each other?

Do you not know that we shal iudge angels? Better still, things pertaining to this life?

Brethren, only for the edification of your faith in the son of the lyving God, Christ Iesu.

Let the Lord have mercy, and onto whom he wil he maketh herde heated. Hebrews 4:4 (1626) For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day, on this wise: And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again: They shall not come into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it followeth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not there in for unbelief's sake.

7 Again he appointeth in David a certain present day after so long a time, saying as it is rehearsed: this day if ye hear his voice, be not hard hearted.

May God's word have free passage with the brethern of the Lord opening their moughts boldly to utter the secrets of the gospel.

Re: DO you love prayer? - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/24 14:47

I agree fully sorry about that, Yes God does listen to those who are not saved that are crying out to him to know him.

But what I was saying those who are in darkness, and are living for there own gods, and praying. those prayers are not heard. What I saying because we have an event and there are lots of people are there, and are all praying. what does light have with darkness, we are not to have unity with darkness.

SO we want lots of people, but God wants our hearts.

The prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it be fervent yes I love this verse. But the KEy a Righteous man.... We can't just come with all these idols living as we please, seeking our own desires, then come God bless up. That is in vain

In his love
charlene

Re: - posted by awakenwithin (), on: 2007/5/28 23:50

I went to the Global day of prayer yesterday. there were lots of people there. When I got there everyone was busy. Of course they had lots to do. there were suppose to be people praying for the event while it was happening. When I went to ask who I might be praying with, they did have anyone. I was little upset. Where they going against what they saying. They were staying prayer was the most important thing. and yet no was pryaing for the event, while it was happening, I am not sure if they really spent a good bite of time bfore. They speaker had many good things that he said. But there was so much man in it. It went on for 3 hours, there b ut 20-30 min's of prayer in that whole time, that people go to pray. I had thought it was a prayer meeting. As I walked around there were kids playing, and useing our God's name in vain. I over heard aother person talking about drugs. People were talking and walking around. It was the speaker said a prayer for people to pray for repenting. Everything was time. and lots of singing. God wants us to do it his way. I don't think this was his way. Then they took the Lord's supper. Unity with looking each others sin. This isn't the unity Christ wants. Then they had the pray this prayer, and welcome to the family. This burns in my bones. It is wrong. Christ wasn't preached. Sin was not pionted out. It all felt good. They all so proud, of all the work they did. But did it hono r God? Maybe parts did, and maybe there wre thsoe with heart felt prayers. And maybe some will be moved to pray mor e. May God make us clean. There must be brokeness over our sins. All week I went to each place this man spoke, I hide myself and prayed and prayed while he talked. The last night, I ask God will you please make this one differnt will you please have some stay and pray. and you know He did, and they were people I had gone to mexico four years ago. They want to start a city wide prayer movment from this. I am suppose to a team prayer in this. But God has been saying, not event, just those you know get with them and pray. what is it if million come to pray and they holding on to sin, and don;t want to change?

did anyone eles to an event yesterday

I guess we can just meet with those we know and pray, and let God bring them. Maybe if let God it, it would work alot better.

In his love
charlene