Don't know the last time I ever heard such a song with such a voice accompanying it... amazing... most songs of his are good, but this is totally different.

(Not on SI.)

There's so much pain in this world
What is it that keeps me holding on?
Yeshua's promised, a world of love
What is it that keeps me holding on?
Got to let it go,
Got to let it go

A tear ran down my cheek as I read in Your word the promises You'll keep
In the end when You take Your children home
How You'll cloth Your saints in robes of white and they'll partake of the tree of life
In the midst of the paradise of God
O how I long to be there on that day wearing white and singing praise
To your Holy Name for all that You have done

We'll be singing,
Glory be unto the Lamb
Glory, honor, and praise
Blessing, and honor, wisdom, and strength,
Glory unto the Lamb

Oh Yahveh please receive me when I die
Yahveh please receive me when I die
