

Scriptures and Doctrine :: A Little Bible Quizzle for you*A Little Bible Quizzle for you, on: 2007/9/5 6:05

Most lines of Charles Wesley's hymns can be lined up with a verse of scripture... so which one Old Testament verse can be most accurately lined up with the second line of this hymn?

In which New Testament chapter is the same picture most closely echoed?

Â'Tis finished! The Messiah dies,
Cut off for sins, but not His own:

Re: A Little Bible Quizzle for you - posted by enid, on: 2007/9/5 6:13

I think the verse you are looking for in the Old Testament is in Daniel 9v26, 'And after sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself...

As for 'Tis finished!..., John 19v30.

That's it.

God bless.

Re: A Little Bible Quizzle for you, on: 2007/9/5 18:04

Hi Enid,

Thank you! You are so right about the verse in Daniel... :-)

And I knew someone would want to mention Christ's words from the cross... when He was actually 'cut off', but, I wanted to link this in a different way to a theological perspective in which Jesus is not mentioned directly.

Any other thoughts?

Re: - posted by enid, on: 2007/9/6 4:40

I'm not going to pretend I know what you mean, because I don't.

But in Isaiah 53v8 it says, '...For He was cut off from the land of the living, for the transgressions of My people He was st ricken.

Here again it mentions Jesus being cut off.

Once again, that's it.

God bless.

Re: A Little Bible Quizze for you, on: 2007/9/6 8:29

Hi Enid, :-)

Thanks for coming back here... and for finding another Old Testament quote which is completely relevant... explaining an aspect of the Messiah's work which is sometimes overlooked...

'for the transgressions of My people He was stricken'

Remember, now I'm looking for a New Testament chapter which echoes this important truth for all believers.

Hmmm.... have another think.... :-D

Re:, on: 2007/9/6 9:24

Quote:

-----I'm not going to pretend I know what you mean, because I don't

:-P :-P :-P

Re:, on: 2007/9/7 16:21

Quote:

Compliments wrote:

Quote:

-----I'm not going to pretend I know what you mean, because I don't

:-P :-P :-P

Hi Linn

How about you stop teasing people and spill the beans? This is the sort of question where there are probably several right answers - we've already had a couple.

So, like the caucus race in Alice in Wonderland, everyone's won and everyone should have a prize - whether they under stand or not! ;-)

Bro Compliments, just pretend you're Alice, and say "curiouser and curiouser".

(Pm me if you never read the book or saw the film)

Blessings

Jeannette

Re: - posted by enid, on: 2007/9/10 7:44

Hello,
Here is my guess at the chapter you might be refering to.

As I said, I don't know, I can only guess, and as Little Gift said, it could be any chapter.

But I think it is Romans 11.

That's my guess. If it is wrong, so be it.

God is good.

God bless.

Re: A Little Bible Quizzle for you, on: 2007/9/11 4:06

enid said:

Quote:

-----I think it is Romans 11.

Enid, you're a star!

This IS the chapter I had in mind. :-D

I believe the meaning of both the verse in Daniel and the chapter in Romans are clearer, by considering them together.

Thank you for bearing with me. I appreciate it.

Yes! God is good!