There is a website called (www.last.fm) Last.Fm that has alot of music (secular and christian)to listen for free.

And it works like this, you name an artist like, Keith Green (I'm listening to him right now :-P) and the website searches for random songs of artists alike (christian artists). Well, you can't keep or choose which song you want to listen to, but since it's free, I think it's worth it ;)

Tell me what you think. Edit: Oops, I posted it on the wrong area... Sorry. If a mod could move it, please move it to the appropriate area? Sorry again.
