I'd like to recommend that before each preacher/teacher audio page that some information be posted about them. I listen to many of these wonderful audio sermons but know nothing about who I'm listening to expect that I liked their message. Maybe that can be found some where here on this website but I haven't found it yet!! Right now, I'm interested in Alan Martin. I've enjoyed what I've heard so far. I don't know, maybe it's not feasible with all the people you have on here but I thought I'd ask anyway! Thank you for reading.

PS: I'm waiting patiently for the Revival Conference to start.... PRAISE GOD!!! I wish I could have been there but hopefully the next time you have it!!

God bless!!!
