I was in Coles Bookstore the other day and there was a huge section dedicated on the occult, witchcraft and the like and the heading for that section is, "Children's Books".

The world tomorrow when these kids grow up will be a world full of demon possession.

Hi Compliments,

For some years now, this has been the largest section in the largest booksellers in the UK, Waterstones.

I am reminded of a book called 'The Roaring Lion' written in the 1960s by missionaries who came back from battling the spirit world (in Borneo I think) because they were met with such disbelief when they tried to share what they had learned during their first tour.

A similar gulf exists today, where people - not just parents - are so ignorant of these truths, that they actually expose their children to evil, a bit like parents used to put children together to get chickenpox all at the same time.

Only this doesn't go away quite so easily! :-)

But praise the Name of JESUS... It is still the name HIGH over ALL ...

Jesus! the Name high over all,
In hell or earth or sky;
Angels and men before it fall,
And devils fear and fly.

Jesus! the Name to sinners dear,
The Name to sinners giv'A'n;
It scatters all their guilty fear,
It turns their hell to Heav'A'n.

Jesus! the prisoner's fetters breaks,
And bruises Satan's head;
Power into strengthless souls it speaks,
And life into the dead.

O that mankind might taste and see
The riches of His grace!
The arms of love that compass me
Would all the world embrace.

O that my Jesu's heavenly charms
Might every bosom move!
Fly, sinners, fly into those arms
Of everlasting love.

Thee I shall constantly proclaim,
Though earth and hell oppose;
Bold to confess Thy glorious Name
Before a world of foes.

His only righteousness I show,
His saving grace proclaim;
'Tis all my business here below
To cry "Behold the Lamb!"

Happy, if with my latest breath
I may but gasp His Name,
Preach Him to all and cry in death,
"Behold, behold the Lamb!"
