Hello from beautiful BC - posted by pcramer, on: 2004/6/3 18:38

Hi everybody from beautiful British Columbia Canada. My name is Phil and I am both an Information Technology Manager and a student. I am currently working on my Doctor of Ministry degree with the hope of becoming a Pastor. I live in a beautiful valley surrounded by mountains and all I have to do is look out my window to see the wonder and majesty of God's creation. I've been a Christian for 30 years and am heavily involved in music :-o at our church. I'm married (just celebrated our 26th anniversary) with a 22 year old daughter. I'm looking forward to finding out about this site and to hopefully getting to know some of you. God's blessings to you this day!

A true warm welcome to you Phil!

So glad you came and introduced yourself. There is so much here to draw from and some wonderful, big hearted brethren willing to share their love and experience Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: Eph 4:13

Look forward to getting to know you as well!

Brother phil, its awesome to see another canadian on the site. I reside in Toronto. I would seriously love to live in BC where my backyard would be God's wonderful creation. I would say I'm not jealous but that would be lying. :-P Great to see you on the site please ask any questions if you need help with anything.. looking forward to your fellowship.
