Saints,

Arno Stegen shares his sermon on the topic of having the love of God in our lives. He speaks of many practical ways to see how if we do or do not have the love of God in our heart. All ministry, work, and serving God can be vain without it being done out of love from the heart for God. This is a very challenging and strong sermon on a much needed topic to be shared.

Very timely for me. I will need to watch this tonight, along with the other one. This is an area that I'm particularly focusing on.
