

Welcome & Intro :: New to Sermon Index

New to Sermon Index, on: 2008/2/10 12:48

Greetings to all.

I've been asked to introduce myself. So here goes.

I am a middle aged man (we'll leave it at that for now :-)), living in Eastern Canada. I have a family with four children. I am a believer in the wonderful grace of God through the Messiah, Yeshua. I also believe that all of His words and instructions are precious and for our edification, and none of His instructions (other than the temple and sacrificial instructions) have been 'abolished' or done away with.

Hoping to meet believers of like mind and heart.

Shalom

Welcome Strider100,

"Strider" ala Tolkien? Almost named a band after him back in my heathen head-banging days ... Perhaps I could add, "Middle-aged" or "Middle-earth"? ;-)

"Fulfilled" Rom 8:4

Welcome to SI, Strider. I know you'll be blessed by your time spent here. This website is reason enough to own a computer!

Hi Strider100...

Welcome to SI! Eastern Canada, eh? I've always dreamed of traveling to Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island (in the summer, no doubt).

As you are probably already aware, there are plenty of incredible resources available here at SermonIndex. It is a "treasure-house" of monumental messages from many men and women of God, many who have already gone before us. The MAIN MENU to the left provides links to all of these materials, including the Audio, Video and Text Sermons, the Music a nd Audio Books and articles included in the Old Paths newsletter. If you ever need anything, feel free to ask or contact any of the moderators. The site administrator, Greg Gordon, is actually from Canada. It is encouraging to hear of so many wonderful saints living in the North!

Once again, welcome! And...

Sha-Alu Shalom Yirushalayim!

Thanks for the encouragement Chris.

If ever you get to travel up here, you won't be disappointed.

Shalom
