Greg,
Do you think this book is something that a pregnancy resource center could give to its clients? (I'm not suggesting they contact this George Vermer or that I would for them.) One of my coworkers is on the board of such a place and I would mention this title to him.

Yes, in that case I am sure you could get many more than 20 to be given to a center like that. Simply email brother George Verwer and tell him the situation and I am sure he will send many!

Thanks, Greg. I will forward the information to my coworker.

Thanks, Greg!

I would like to read this book. I even thought about attending a few anti-abortion rallies, where pro-abortion folks tend to congregate. I used to carry copies of some of the Americans Against Abortion and Last Day Ministries tracts, but it seems that these books might offer a clear argument to some who are seriously seeking to find answers to this issue.

Last week, there was a Barack Hussein Obama rally in Texas. An elderly woman went holding a sign that read "Abortion kills unborn babies, Mr. Obama!" Sadly, some of the pro-Barack crowd stole her sign and ripped it up (right in front of news cameras). Undaunted, the elderly woman began to shout, "Please stop killing the unborn!" Some in the crowd started getting into her face while shouting her down (and trying to drown out her voice). The crowd was so arrogantly hateful -- that I thought that they would hit the elderly woman (they got awfully close with their hands). I was amazed at the tenacity of a woman who looked like she was over the age of 80!

I'd like to read a book (and perhaps obtain some copies of it) that could present the anti-abortion argument in a logical and loving way. It can happen. I used to discuss this issue with a former professor. He was strongly pro-abortion. He listened intently to my views (while I listened to his). I purchased a copy of No Compromise: The Life Story of Keith Green for this particularly professor. The book affected him deeply. He began to start seeking the truth in regard to spiritual matters, and he has completely changed his stance on the abortion issue.

Chris,

Have you ever heard of Carol Everett? She had 3 abs and after a while operated her own AB clinics. If you want to read a fascinating story, google "Carol Everett" and you should find it.

Just got my twenty copies, they are small, concise books. Praise God for them, and that they get into hands of people who will read and act upon such things

Thank you!

I am also collecting some information for my brother-in-law. Emmanuel is currently a college freshman, and he is writing an essay taking a position against abortion. He has been asking for some clear reasons -- both Scriptural and logical -- against the slaughter of the unborn.

Please keep him in your prayers as he writes this paper and then presents it to the class.
