Australian Evangelist Bashed Within Inch of Death

This is a quick message asking you to pray for Kevin 'mad dog' Mudford, who for the past 30 years been an evangelist in Australia.

On Saturday night, 15 March 2008, he spoke at a Drug rehab. Centre, after the meeting a man followed him out as he was leaving and then proceeded to beat him. The man later claimed that God told him to kill Kevin Mudford.

Kevin Mudford is currently in hospital waiting brain surgery, his condition is classed as serious.

Please pray that God's will be done in this time, and also pray for Kevin and his family.
