Milton Green, on: 2008/3/27 18:37

I was a long time follower of James Robison's ministry about 17 years ago and I remember him mentioning Milton Green. He told about how he prayed a prayer of deliverance over him and that he was set free from demonic oppression.

I forgot all about it until I saw his name on the right of the SI forum. I thought that couldn't be him but I guess it is. Mr. Robison said that Mr. Green was just a carpet cleaner when he prayed over him. He said that he was so proud at that time he didn't want a carpet cleaner praying over him because he was afraid somebody would overhear him. :-) It was funny when he explained how it all happened.

I will definately have to listen to some of his messages. I was so taken back by that whole story and it's amazing to think here you have all of these messages from that very same man and I never even recognized it till now. :-D I never even knew he became a preacher!

Re: Milton Green, on: 2008/3/28 3:47

Psl.18....Same kind of testimony for me. A long time friend gave me sermon index's address and I searched Milton Greens site, and I think I've listened to them all....no kidding.....the best gospel preaching I have heard in respect to truth and fruit. This is what brought me to this site, and I am grateful. I've left many reviews on Milton's tapes.

Let me know what you think, as your the first person i have met who goes here. Tom.

I just popped on here before work this morning and saw your post. :-) I plan on listening to them next week because I'm on vacation. Thanks Tom, I will let you know what I think. I'm sure they are good. I have heard alot of good things about this man.

Re: - posted by Shaggy (), on: 2008/3/30 2:58

Brothertom, I have gone over the tapes on sermonindex too and have 6 VCR tapes that I got in the 80's from a meeting that Milt had in Dallas. I went to 3 of his meeting in Dallas about 1984 and God changed my life. This is a word to the body of Christ today,for such a time as this. It is a word of truth and fruit! It's a walk of Loving God and Loving you neighbor. That's a walk of Grace. God is giving us time to Repent. God Bless,Shaggy

Re:, on: 2008/3/30 3:52

Questions:

Does anyone know Milton Green's doctrinal views, etc.? Just on basics, like:

1. Calvinism/Arminianism
2. Gifts of the Spirit
3. Denominational background/affiliation (if any)
4. Etc, etc, etc.

What about affiliations? Who did he do ministry with? And does he have a website?

I would like to know these things before listening to his sermons so thought I'd ask. I can't seem to find his website. Thanks!

Re: JOSEF URBAN....cnn: Milton Green...TRUE PROPHET BROTHER, on: 2008/3/30 22:59

Josef: I'll do good on the etc. and etc. part of your quest concerning Milton Green. Don't know a lot. He was saved at 43, out of insanity and depravity. He died at 58, in the 90s. He was in a witnessing "lay" ministry for a while, and gained acknowledgement as a gifted prayer minister, where somehow he met James Robison, who then did crusades as a Baptist evangelist in a worldwide way.

Somewhere along the line, he ministered to James Robison, in a deliverance setting. I have heard this testimony from James more than once, on television. James was so dramatically set free, that it changed his life in a profound fashion. He became Spirit filled, yet remained a Baptist. Milton Green was a carpet cleaner, making a living as an owner operator of Friendly Carpet Cleaners.

James took Milton with him to meetings, which launched Milton Green into a conference type ministry. It seems he came into a prophetic mantle and deliverance ministry in a wholesale way. His main thrust is that you are saved by being born again, yet unless you bear holy fruit, you are not His, so therefore turn back to obey the covenant. His thoughts are very clear and anointed, reminding me of John the Baptist coming to a Baptist convention.

His only fault that is glaring, in my view, are some of the liberties he takes with prophetic allegories or types, saying that this is that, mostly from the Prophets. You'll see, and they can get on your nerves a bit, but overall he is awesome, and I love the man. Wish he were here, the church needs a lion like Milt today.

I think he accepts the gifts, but doesn't necessarily practice them. To him, keeping covenant and bearing good fruit is the Gospel, and every thing else spreads out below. He is big on Satan projecting his thoughts and will on those who are not willing to deny our "carnon", ie: the old Satanic nature we all carry. and how the church as a whole has been defiled by not understanding God's covenant through Jesus's sacrifice.

I believe if one could lay down any preconceptions, and maybe not jump on his radical style and thought trains too quickly as weird, they could receive a wealth of pearls from this dear brother, and I have never heard ANYONE QUOTE THE WORD PREACHING AS MUCH AS MILTON GREEN! ;It is a joy in the world of the motivational positive life style masquerading as the Gospel. enjoy....brothertom.....ps; if you find another storage site like si, let me know.

He really seems to preach what he knows to be true and now I know why listening to his testimony (http://www.godtube.com/view_video.php?viewkeyfc23b59f18c1bc9802cc) here on God tube.

This must be at one of James Robison's bible conferences because I see Rick Godwin and Dudley Hall in this video.

Hello,
I have had first hand experience with Milt Green Ministries. I attended his conferences when I lived in Ft Worth in 1984. This man changed my life forever. When he was finished teaching that first night, I repented all over again,gave my whole heart to God, and I was transformed by the power of God. My life has never been the same. I have a lot of his teachings and in most recent days, the Lord seems to be renewing some things in me. If you are out there and you haven't made Jesus Lord of your life then I am here to tell you that you can and you will never be the same. This man who I only knew a short time, was used so powerfully by God that my move to Texas was worth it all. Milt was far ahead of his time, and it is only now that we are beginning to hear about the Fear of the Lord. Thank you for letting me share with you what the Lord has done for me. I am truly transformed by the knowledge I obtained from this wonderful man of God. We are not here to criticize, nor to ostracize but we are here to embrace, empower and equip. God bless. Btovensmom

Awesome testimony! I started this thread awhile back in case you were wondering. :-) I really enjoy listening to him. He is very genuine and transparent which is why I think his preaching has such a big impact on others--atleast for me anyway. His love for others just shines through and there is no pretense.

Re: - posted by death2self (), on: 2008/6/27 11:01

He also wrote a book entitled "The Great Falling Away" which you buy for less than a buck, plus shipping on Amazon..

I read it some years back and it was true then and seemingly much truer now...

We also were there in 1984 and it changed our lives as well! Need help,we purchased Milt's seminar video's, "In The Word with Milton Green," there were 16 video cassettes, let a friend borrow them, can't remember who, they were never returned! Have been searching for many years to find another set, no luck, can anyone help us with this? Thanks

It amazes me how many lives were touched by him! I would like to get the worship music from the James Robison bible conferences if anyone knows where they are. I don't follow James Robison today. His ministry has gone in the wrong direction. I don't approve of some of his guest and some of the so called christians he approves of. I have always appreciated his wife Betty, though but again I don't keep up with them anymore.

Here's where you can get those video tapes. I just found this site:

Nevermind, I don't want to change the subject of the thread. I found Jeanne Rogers on YouTube. She was the worship leader at the bible conference. It's nice to hear her again. She has a beautiful voice. :-)

Milton Green doesn't spend a lot of time going into specific doctrines, or identifying his stand on many issues as many preachers do today. Rather, he spends a lot of time exposing the general spirit of deception behind false doctrines.

Regarding spiritual gifts, Milton appears to have the gift of discernment (to a high degree), teaching, and evangelism. However, I have not known Milton to spend a lot of time outlining spiritual gifts, but he tends to put more emphasis than anything on being cleansed by the word of God and being conformed to the nature of Jesus.

If I'm not mistaken, Milton would probably be classified as non-denominational for the latter part of his ministry. There is evidence that beforehand, he was affiliated with many different denominations, but ultimately turned away from all of them. I would imagine that most of them were very conservative in practice.

Milton's basic ministry centered around warning Christians that "the law has been lost from the pulpit today". He teaches that many respectable teachers, preachers, prophets, evangelists, etc., are bringing people false comforts by not teaching the full counsel of God's word, and thus bringing a curse upon the whole church because people are not repenting of sin and being renewed in a Godly nature and in love. It could also be called an endtimes ministry of sorts. Though Milton wasn't that well educated, his sermons were filled with grace and the Holy Spirit, along with his book The Great Falling Away Today.

Milton had a ministry called Be Fruitful and Multiply Ministries. He also has a website being maintained to this day called <http://www.befruitfulandmultiply.org/>. On that site you can order his book and sermons. I have heard that generally, if you cannot afford something, they will give it to you for free. You can also write them at this address to receive a catalog:

Re: - posted by swill8295, on: 2010/7/2 23:42

I also forgot to add the most important thing about his ministry (which was the result of Satan) is that preachers, teachers, prophets, evangelists, etc., are no longer being taught about the "powers of darkness" in their seminaries, and in turn are not making their flocks aware of it. Milton used to be a deliverance minister, but God changed his ministry, and now he teaches about how demons have power over most of the church today. He teaches that people are being conformed to "doctrines of devils" and that they are refusing to repent of their stiff-necked pride, chiefly the preachers and people at head churches. People are not being made aware that there are demons literally everywhere, and that if you aren't trusting in God and being renewed in His grace and conformed to the image of Jesus, you are already under the bondage of Satan and the wrath of God.

I can't believe I joined this site and came across your post just a moment later. The very information that I have been after is Robison's testimony about this deliverance session. When I heard it years ago, it had a profound effect on my life and I've never forgotten how he talked about the "claw" in his head. I believe the Lord has been prompting me to find this, and in the midst of my search a close member of my family has just given their life to the Lord. This message is custom made for that person!

If you know where I might find that story, contact me at model1949@aol.com.

I'll add Milton Green to my search criteria and see if I can locate it, and praise God that you mentioned it in your posting. God bless you!

There was a man that pastored a small church in our area who sat under Milton Green's ministry. His name was Frank Hickman. I had the opportunity to fellowship with this man and he lived what he preached. He never had much in the material sense but he walked in the fear of the Lord and was very strong on teaching repentance and holiness. Having listened to many of Milton Green's teachings, it was evident that brother Green's ministry had a profound effect on him.

There is a woman in Texas named Geri McGhee that has been doing deliverance seminars for many years that was also impacted by Milton Green's ministry and teaching.

<http://www.abidinglifeministries.org>

Leonard Ravenhill who ministered in the same area of Texas as Milton Green and Geri McGhee had a lot of influence on their ministries. So did David Wilkerson.

The more I see what God used Milton Green to do, the more I realize how much Satan wants to divide the body of Christ, what little is truly left. Milton Green's teachings seem to stir up the demons, and can be a bone of contention with folks who have spiritual pride, which is quite a few. I'm only 27, and have been a Christian for maybe 4 years at the most, and I've seen people just about foam at the mouth when I mention Milton. Many people don't even know who he is, but the demons know and make the people my enemy according to the flesh. People who serve the flesh are serving Satan. Bringing up Milton Green's teachings has made me enemies. But in the Lord, I'm not ashamed of it. The accusing spirits follow me around to this day, but the Lord helps me discern them with the Holy spirit.

I have two messages about "Healing, Sickness & Sin" from Milton Green, they seem to be from some conference series. I didn't find that sermons (and the other sermons from that series) on this site, does someone know if they are here (maybe under a different name)? I like his messages very much, they have been a great help for me.

Thankyou for this post i never even heard of Milton Green until i read your post. It is very rare to get this kind of depth in teachings these days. I can only endorse the preachings that i heard of him and i was nearly in tears. Some of the areas he spoke in were truly deep pearls. I know now why God was pushing me to read the posts tonight.
