I seem to have 2 names. Once I forgot my password and I think I re registered. Can I cancel Jalim and continue with Linda7? Also I have just posted under Jalim without realizing (General Topics, House Church). Can this be altered to Linda7. What a mess! Sorry.

Linda

Hi Linda,

Do you now recall your old password for Linda7?

If so we can cancel "Jalim". As for the other posts, if you wish you could repost them under the other moniker and we can delete those under "Jalim" as well ...

Yes, I have password, so can we go ahead with your suggestions, deleting all under Jalim. I don't want to repost them all, maybe the last one. Thanks very much.

No problem sister ... this will make the former posts under Jalim "Anonymous". It's just how the software is setup.
