Man how much i wish i could have attended one of his prayer meetings :(, truly, men like him are rare but i pray that the Lord brings forth men like him to put lots of modern Churches to shame.

Not only are men like him rare, but the men that will attend those prayer meetings are rare.

Let me encourage you, if you feel the longing to be in a prayer meeting like those Ravenhill had, start one.

Prayer, as you know, is powerful. I encourage you to set a time and start with a small invitation to some members of your congregation.

Let the Spirit of God have His way in our lives to accomplish His will.

If only we, as His children, would pray.

God Bless,

DesiJr.
