If there is such a thing as a little evidence when it comes to this subject. Written approximately 800 or more years apart:

Isaiah 49:10

"They will neither hunger or thirst,
Neither will the scorching heat or sun strike them down; For He who has compassion
on them will lead them, and will guide
them to springs of water."

Revelation 7:16-17

"They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither shall the sun beat down on them, nor any heat."

"for the Lamb in the center of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them to springs of the water of life;
and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes."

No hungering or thirsting anymore. Nor the sun scorching or beating them down and being guided to springs of water. Nah, I don't believe John sat down when writing Revelation and tried to write in a similar fashion as Isaiah. The timeless Spirit outside of him inspired him to write so. So be it. As most believers know, this is but one example of many. I ran across it the other night and got "inspired" when I read.
