

Miracles that follow the plow :: Saved

I was raised C of E but when I turned 13 years old I became pagan, to be more precise an eclectic witch. I was awfully behaved, I never went to school, fell out with my parents and was lazy!

I got married at 17, had my identical twin boys when I was 18, I went into premature labour at 29 weeks and they were born weighing 1lb 14oz and 3lb. Both critically ill, despite my "beliefs" I got on my knees and prayed "Please God save them I will do anything" . He did and to hold me to the last bit. I had my daughter exactly a year later, my husband ran off with somebody else when I was pregnant with her.

After she was born I fell in with the wrong crowd and it was not long before I was taking drugs. I went out with a drug dealer and to cut a long story short - got sectioned. I had lost everything, my home, my health, my children . I had no money , no clothes, no food. I was underweight, that was Christmas 1004.

In 1991 /1992 my nan was diagnosed with cancer. The "born again lot" came around a lot. My nan and my mum had both prayed the prayer of repentance, I refused, scoffed and mocked them.

February 10th 1995 I knew I had been born-again! The words they said plus things from my childhood came flooding back! I went to find the lady who had witnessed to my nan and mum, I did find her and she knew I had been saved. Overnight my life was transformed, drug free and I stopped smoking. My psychiatrist was amazed and signed me off, I even came off the medication.

I went to church, I got baptised in May 1995.

I had blood tests for infections and they have all come back negative - for everything! Tested more than once I add, praise JESUS! I got my family back too and a home.

Glory to GOD! I am nothing but an ex-junkie and an ex-witch who JESUS saved.

I am now partially disabled due to a spinal operation for my scoliosis that went wrong and stupidly I backslid for just over a year. I did not pray enough and blamed GOD for my pain. In my anger I did sin. The LORD healed me of this backsliding and I would say to anyone who feels anger to pray and fully immerse yourself in the word, put GOD's armour on and talk to somebody from church and pray with them.

Thankfully or more rightly so thank the LORD I did not go back to drugs but I did start smoking again. This is my biggest battle, I am determined to quit forever as it's horrid. I was delivered from it once, so I know I will, can you please pray that I will, thank you and GOD bless, Helen x :-)

Helen,

You and your family will be in my prayers.
