SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - A lesbian motorcycle group dressed in wedding gowns and wearing bridal veils lent a matrimonial touch to San Francisco's gay pride parade Sunday as revelers celebrated their newfound freedom to marry.

The riders tossed bouquets as they led the city's 38th annual gay pride parade down Market Street. Some of the motorcycles were adorned with signs that read "Just Married."

Huge crowds lined the route as city tourism officials predicted the largest turnout yet for the parade, which typically draws tens of thousands. ...

They won't be celebrating when they stand before God unless they repent and turn from their wicked ways.

Sin for a season.

It really doesn't matter what we think. It would appear to me that the 6,000 to 8,000 lightning strikes in one night, that started ~850 fires, shows how God views it - and now California is burning, burning, burning.

We must pray for Mr. Schwarzenegger to be awakened to the Truth.

What if I am governor and I believe murder and stealing is wrong... but I don't want to force my beliefs on anyone else... so I'll go ahead and make murder and burglary legal. And while I'm at it, I'll also legalize rape. I mean, I'm against it all... but I don't want to force what I believe on others.

What an idiot.

In San Diego, our Mayor held that he would not support gay marriage as one of his core values and promises to voters.

Then about 6 months ago he changed his stance. I saw his announcement on TV--in tears he claimed he needed to 'follow his heart' and allow all people to enjoy the same rights of relationship in marriage in a legal union. By the way, he also mentioned his daughter is gay.

The "tolerance" propaganda machine has done its job well. People are no longer shocked about being gay--and in California--it is practically celebrated.

A friend who has a gay relative recently mentioned that her relative claimed Christians were stupid and spineless--that it has been really too easy to legalize gay marriage and win the supportive opinions of the masses for gays.

Finally, I recently took a job at a camp associated with a mainstream denomination. I am now appalled at discovering how many in the camp ministry, and even the church leadership are gay. It is quietly accepted as the motto: "Open Hearts, Open Minds, Open Doors"

Oh Lord, forgive us our slumber. My heart is heavy.

And they are teaching the children . . . in the name of God.

These verses have been on my heart lately, and the Lord keeps reiterating the depth of their meaning:

Psalm 106

36And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

38And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

40Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.
