Saints,

This has been a project I have been working on with brother Zac Poonen's materials. We are publishing this website for the lack of knowledge of the true message and "core" of the gospel. Also a clear presentation of how one begins to even seek God. Here is the page with the translations thus far: <http://www.readthegospel.com/step2.html>

Currently the languages we have translated are:

Tamil
Dutch
German
Greek
Romanian

If you are willing or know how to translate another language please complete it and send it as a "pdf" if its a script font or if it can be viewed with normal text send it to me as a word doc or another form to: sermonindex@gmail.com

What spurred me on is to see the Jehovah Witnesses translate their magazine online in over 300 languages in the world. Cannot we do the same dear brothers and sisters?

If I was a little further along in my Spanish studies I would love to help. But at this time I can't. I think there are some one here that could probably translate it for you.

Hello,

Greg, are you looking for someone to translate it into Spanish?
If you do i would love to help.

Actually as we speak these languages are being worked on, thanks for your offer dear brother!

Spanish, Korean, Norwegian and Indian languages - Hindi, Marathi, Telugu and Malayalam.

I am looking to get a translation staff together for the OLD PATHS MAGAZINE. I believe that would be a great blessing for many! Let me know if you are interested in that.

I am actually a sister :-)

Well, if you need any help let me know for the OLD PATHS MAGAZINE.

God bless.
