It is amazing it are society that is getting angry at more and more things, there is everything from road rage to computer rage.

Because as a society we have most of our possessions and have an eye on this world we do not realise that everything that we have belongs to the Lord!

In our society the tv takes front place in most peoples living rooms, so interacting with human being is a lost art.

So getting angry because

I have to look at my self am I angry at my own sin!

What do we trust in so much that makes us angry?

Why is our society and church have an ever increasing problem with Anger?
