Dearly Beloved

Today, when panic strikes in America—when the ominous news begin to send shock waves of fear across the land, and hysteria mounts—God's people won't be able to avoid feeling the huge wave of human anxiety. That's right—I will feel it, you will feel it, all Christians are going to feel it. Such feeling is inevitable; it's simply human to have this kind of reaction to such terrible chaos. Yet, at the same time, God will put within us the resources needed to take immediate control of every fearful thought and bring it into obedience to the truth of Christ. And his Spirit will fill our very beings with his perfect peace.

The upheaval that's coming to America is not meant as a judgment on the church—but as a purging of the church! In deed, those who love Christ and cling to him, the coming holocaust won't be a judgment at all. You see, although God comes to the wicked as an avenger, he comes to the righteous as a redeemer.

God's greater purpose in breaking down the American money machine is to deliver his redeemed children from the contagious spirit of materialism and worldly-mindedness now engulfing our nation.

Yet, in the midst of such time, God's people are promised strength and peace. Indeed there is no confusion in the hearts and minds of praying, trusting believers.

Isaiah prophesied—“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee” (Isaiah 26:3)

No matter what happens to the economy, no matter what crisis we face, no matter what sorrow or trouble may come our way, - OUR BLESSED LORD IS LEADING AND CARING FOR US EVERY STEP OF THE WAY.

The Lord put this upon my heart.

09/12/08

~ There are two towers rising, one of Uzziah and one of Babylon. The first one will be higher than the last. All of the people will murmur and complain as their life is impacted by the fall thereof. Once the towers begin to fall, things will swiftly come to an end.

As the sun begins to set the North Star will begin to rise.

The end of things is near. The people's hearts have begun to wax cold. As the season changes there will be a falling away of all things. Watch and beware of the evil one that is lurking behind every corner. Cling to Me in the final hours—hold on to the One true God of the universe, the God of Israel. Do not despair of my keeping power. Run and do not grow weary as I lift you to heights that you could not imagine, for I am the one true God and am ever watchful for those that are mine.~

Great Message, I get his devotions each day, and they are such a blessing. Very timely word from a fine man of God.

Mar 13:35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

Mar 13:36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

Mar 13:37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

As we see the world systems coming apart around us, we are told to endure, and be about the masters business.

Blessings Greg
