A real Christian is an odd number, anyway.
He feels supreme love for the One whom He has never seen; talks familiarly with the Friend he cannot see; expects to go to heaven on the virtues of Another; empties himself so that he may be filled; admits he is wrong so that he can be declared right; bows down in order to rise up; is strongest when he is weakest; richest when he is poorest; and happiest even when he feels the worst.

He dies so that he may live; forsakes all in order to have; gives away so that he can keep; sees the Invisible, hears the inaudible; and knows the One who surpasses understanding.
