News from Greenock - posted by JoanM, on: 2008/11/21 20:31

Greg and Frank (Appolus, part of the conference prayer group) have been interviewed in Greenock on the radio (BBC and local station). My poor web research skills have produced this link to the Greenock Telegraph, which seems to be both a local newspaper and related to one of the radio stations.

Thanks to someone I don't know (bethanyhome7) we have the following:

"www.yourradiofm.com will be broadcasting "sound-bytes" of both Greg and Frank starting on Monday."

There is a "listen now" button. The music I heard at 3am Pacific was secular, so I copied programing and news times. The one news break I heard included announcements from a church. I do not think there are what we call in America "Christian Radio" stations there (unclean advertisements).

I have asked the station to give me times in their programming when the "interview clips" will be on. In the mean time the site provides this information:

YOUR Radio broadcast locally produced and presented news bulletins on the hour between 7am and 7pm from Monday to Friday and also headline updates on the half hour at 7.30am, 8.30am and 5.30pm. In addition we broadcast national news headlines courtesy of Independent Radio News in London between 8pm and 10pm from Monday to Friday. At the weekend we broadcast local news bulletins between 7am and 11am and national news headlines from 12pm till 6pm.

Finally, I have some photos, via e-mail attachments, of the interview but do not know how to post them on SI. (Anyone able to do this? PM me with e-mail and I'll forward so all can enjoy). Just a little exploration on the web has shown me how desperate the need for revival is there. I lost the link to the Wikipedia page that referred to a mainline denomination as "little more than a social club"!

Oh! men and brethren, what would this heart feel if I could but believe that there were some among you who would go home and pray for a revival - men whose faith is large enough, and their love fiery enough to lead them from this moment to exercise unceasing intercessions that God would appear among us and do wondrous things here, as in the times of former generations.
