I was wondering if anyone knew anything about Erwin McManus. His name has come up and I was wondering what any one here may know about him.

Thanks for any help

Read the book Faith Undone by Roger Oakland.

He gives us the players and there quotes concerning the emerging church movement.

McManus is one of the players and takes a liberal stand on scripture intreperation.

He agrees with Brian McLaren and his doctrine.

who believes that Homosexuality is probably not a sin and cant figure out in scripture if its wrong or not.

These guys are trying to change christianity from fundamental, to their version of it.
