I have been listening to wretched radio for a couple of weeks now. Currently Todd is at the Minnesota State fair. The broadcast loops if you missed it. You can also listen to highlights all for free. However you can also become a member and there by get more benefits.

Todd is like ray comfort but Todd is Todd. I found him refreshing and very sincere.

I was somewhat dissappointed in this considering that their former program (the same thing only under a different name) was completely free. I was looking to sign up for the podcast and when I found I had to pay I passed.

Well it's only 5.95 a month. They gotta pay the bills.

However a person can still listen to the radio broadcast for free.

I'm not saying they shouldn't charge, just dissappointed....they did the same thing for free before.

I've been listening to todays episode. Still at the Minnisota State Fair. Todd is doing an excellent job of relating to these folks and presenting the whole counsel of God!! Awesome.

Right now he is witnessing to Three teens in Goth attire!
