When I first started praying I used to hear wierd noises here and feel fear in the dark parts of the home . Then they went away and have never come back has anyone else experienced that during prayer???

i've never had this happen to me. i'm in the same boat as krispy, i'd probably say it is just something in my house. i beli eve in spiritual warefare, but am hesitant to identify or label something as that.

Moose, next time you get on your knees to prayer, spread out the Bible in front of you and go right to Hebrews 3 and ver ses 1 thru 4:

1Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Ch rist Jesus;

2Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more h onour than the house.

4For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

dont worry about a thing.

I can imagine such things happening because I have heard of worst ones. But for you if they went away, Praise the LOR D and go on. Don't look back! Know that your security is in God and stay close to Him.

Blessings,
