It is not looking as if I will make the service this time, but will keep you all in prayer.

We have started to see a stirring in our services Sunday morning this last week and God has done some amazing things. We had been on a 21 Day fast and with some serious needs. Folk have been reconciling differences and openly confessing, etc. Others were discouraged and on the brink of suicide and were comforted.

Truly it is a unique time. Many saints are needing encouragement. Amazing how much God can do in so little time! I pray that God will move likewise in your services.
