In need of a sermon on evangelizing - posted by Lucash (), on: 2009/2/12 11:51

Two other men and myself are going to go around town door to door evangelizing and I downloaded the sermon by Ray Comfort called "Hells Best Kept Secret" and I was disheartened because I was laughing more than I was convicted of my sin. Judging by the comments this was a great sermon to help prepare your heart for evangelism but I disagree because of my personal experience. Anyways, I am in need of a sermon on evangelizing to prepare my heart with along with prayer and reading the Bible. I enjoy listening to Paul Washer, Leonard Ravenhill, John Piper, and David Wilkerson. Thanks!!!!

Lucash,

I am very sorry for the lack of humility I had when responding to you. Please find it in your heart to forgive me.

I find I have more and more to work on the further I go with Christ but that is not an excuse. You are just starting out and I NEVER meant to offend you or your walk with our precious Lord. I do not want a millstone tied around my neck and be cast into the sea.

Every sermon recommended here is wonderful, listen to them and go out as the Lord sends you in His name!

God bless you Lucash, and again please forgive me.

----- I still recommend and hope you would listen to someone who is humble:

(<https://www.sermonindex.net/modules/mydownloads/viewcat.php?cid157&min480&orderbytitleA&show20>) Zac Poone n. I love all the others but for the last year or so, I've been just listening to his balanced message. It's refreshing in a land of unbalancedness (new word!).

God bless,

Listen to Bill Bright's "How You Can Help Fulfill the Great Commission" This man had a real heart for evangelism !

Lucash

I can suggest 2 sermons that I have reproduced on CD's that I distribute around town here.

The Evidence by Ray Comfort
 Imortal by Greg Laurie

These are very powerfull messages, and should be a blessing to all that hear them.

Hi, I recommend from Paul Washer:

"A Biblical Vision and Strategy for Missions: Paul Washer delivers a biblical vision for and the biblical strategy behind true missionary works that glorifies God."

I believe God has used this sermon to change the course of my life.

Check out Jonathan Edwards' sermon, "The Preciousness of Time and the Importance of Redeeming It."

I don't see it anywhere on this site, but if you Google it you should be able to find it.

i actually like hell's best kept secret but it would not be my first choice in handing messages out, i actually recommend a couple of sermons that i think our very powerful the holiness of God by Paul Washer, if people can understand that the God they are dealing with is a holy God and that they have deeply sinned against this holy God they will understand the cross for once, then i would get by Paul Washer called the meaning of the cross to explain what the gospel is which you can find here on this site but also for cd copies on grantedministries.com,

This is one of my personal favorites and most might not agree but Ravi Zacharias is very very smart and the message he presents is very good. If you go to his site get their email and ask them for as many copies of the cd called Jesus, it is awesome, they will likely be fine if you copy it too. This must be very important to you, i recommend listening to everyone on here and listen to the sermons on the site, they are the best out there, they have everyone on here. Also look up Mark Cahill. There is no better book than Alleine's 'Alarm to the Unconverted'

For a short sermon, I might recommend D.L. Moody.
