

Articles and Sermons :: Excellent featured sermon

Excellent featured sermon - posted by quentusio (), on: 2009/4/26 14:20

I've listened to many messages by Miss Ten Boom and like all of them this one is certainly full of insight and illumination. I suppose a lot of people would assume that she had one great experience in her life (the Holocaust) and then spent the rest of her time traveling and telling her story. The more I learn about Corrie Ten Boom the more I see that this is far from the truth. I was even thinking of her father (Casper) this morning at church as we were studying the type of wisdom (gentle, unbiased, patient, etc) that is found in the Book of James and I immediately thought that he was the very embodiment of such a wisdom.